- PREFACE -

The purpose of this History is to permanently preserve the records of this remarkable family now scattered almost around the world. The preservation of this family record and the publication of this family history has been made possible only through the many liberal contributions made by various members of the family to the Van Horn Heirs Association and The Van Horne Historical and Genealogical Research Association of Pennsylvania.

The author of this publication presents to the Van Horn and Van Horne descendants in America a complete, so far as it is humanly possible to make complete, a record of their early ancestry, the facts concerning the legendary tale of wealth as handed down to them from generation to generation.

To this end our researches have lead us to many cities and towns in this country in our determination to know and to give to you the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth and to brand once and for all time to come, the oft repeated family legends as either the truth or myth.

Then there are many others in this country who might long to become members of the Sons or Daughters of the American Revolution or some other patriotic organization and who have been unable to trace beyond all doubt, their ancestry back to the days of the American Revolution or to couple their ancestors as active participants in that great struggle for Independence. To all such this book will be an invaluable aid.

We hope by this volume to set aside traditions and family legendary tales of every conceivable nature, the most prevalent of which is the expectancy of a fortune coming to various members of the family which they are in hopes of inheriting from their ancestors, through the expiration of a ninety-nine year lease (alleged) by them to have been given to New York City by their early ancestors, which tradition or legendary tale appears to be absolutely unfounded.

To show the frequent absurdity of legendary tales we note here a typical statement made by Mrs. Phylenia E. Van Horne Wasson, one of the oldest living members of the family:

An Amusing Legendary Family Tale

Some time in the seventeenth century between 1750 and 1770 there came to this country four old men by the name of Van Horne. They came to New York or Manhattan Island as it was called at that time. They came from Holland and when they landed they bought land and made houses there. Two were married and two were not married. One of the married ones lost his wife. Then he started back to Holland and on his way back the ship was lost and he was never heard of after. He never had any children. His name was John. The other married brother was Mathias. This man had one child, a boy, and he called him William Abraham after his two single brothers, William and Abraham Van Horne. When the lad was six years old his mother died. Then his father gave him to his Uncle Abraham as his own child to raise, as he and his brother William also gave Abraham all their money and land; and soon after they died. William died first and then not long after Mathias died. Then the old man Abraham took his dead brother's name, William. He was God-Father to this young man and those two were all that was left of the four old men. Now from this young man, William Abraham Van Horne, I claim my heirship. I am a straight descendant from him. This William Abraham Van Horne was the father of Abraham that went to Philadelphia. Now you see that the one who went to Philadelphia was Mathias A. Van Horne, father and Mathias A. Van Horne was William Van Horne's father, and William Van Horne was the father of Isaac Mellen Van Horne and Isaac Mellen Van Horne was my father. Mrs. Phylenia E. Van Horne Wasson and I are the children of Isaac Mellen Van Horne. Isaac Mellen Van Horne was the son of William Van Horne and William Van Horne was the son of Mathias Van Horne and Mathias A. Van Horne was the son of Abraham Van Horne and Abraham Van Horne was the God-Son of Sir William Abraham Van Horne, his uncle given to him by his father, Mathias Van Horne.

Isaac Mellen Van Horne was born in the year 1819, the 21st. day of May. He married Mary E. Foulk, April 25th, 1839. He died January 13th, 1886, at Ellsworth, Ellsworth County, Kansas. William Van Horne was born in April in the year 1788 or 1789. He being over thirty years older than his son Isaac Mellen Van Horne who was born in 1819. This William Van Horne married Ioama Mellen at Danville, Montour County, Pa. He died April 25th, 1855 near New Wilmington, Lawrence County, Pa. and was buried at the Moshanock Cemetery about a half mile west of New Wilmington. This William Van Horne had a large family. They are as follows: Isaac Mellen Van Horne, dead; Leah Grover, dead; Sarah Ann Davis, dead; Harriet Stinederf, John Van Horne, dead; Almyra Stinederf, living; Lemuel Van Horne, dead; Katherine Byers, dead; they all died in Mercer County but Isaac Mellen Van Horne, who died at Ellsworth, Kansas. This was my great grandfather.

Mathias A. Van Horne was born near Philadelphia, Pa., in the year 1794. He was 35 years older than this William Van Horne who was born in 1788 or 1789. He married Katherine Stackhouse in the year 1780. He came to Montour County with his family about 1812 from there to Lawrence County near New Castle in 1825. He died there and was buried there. His wife lived to be one hundred and four years old and she died at Milledgeville in Mercer County in the year of 1858. This man Mathias A. Van Horne was counted a great freak, being born with two teeth and was the seventh son and was born after his father was sixty-one years old. His father's name was Abraham Van Horne. He was born on Manhattan Island. He went to Philadelphia young and was married there.

Mathias A. Van Horne's wife was a very old woman. She was my great grandmother. She died when I was eleven years old. I being born in 1847, the 8th of February. My father took care of his grandmother and all of her business for her. He got all her papers and that is the way I got to know their things. This man Mathias A. Van Horne raised a family of ten. They are as follows: James, Athonile, Abraham, Katherine, William, Annie, Joseph, Peggy, George and Bettsy. I never heard who James married but he was grandfather of James Gordon Bennet, the great New York newspaper man. Athonile married Elizabeth Harris. He was killed in a well near New Castle, Pa. Abraham married Jane Thompson for his first wife, second was Harriet Glenn. He lived all his life near Mercer. He has two sons living yet. Katherine and Annie married brothers by the name of Davis. Peggy married Robert Best. Don't know who George married. He went into the state of Ohio. Bettsy married a man by the name of Taylor. These are the brothers and sisters of my grandfather William Van Horne.

Now introducing myself, my name is Wasson. My maiden name was Phylenia E. Van Horne, daughter of Isaac Mellen Van Horne. I was born on the 8th day of February, 1847, one half mile east of Milledgeville, Mercer County, Pa. My father kept an account of all the items for his grandmother and his own father. Father was a man that told his family those things so they would know if anything might happen to him. My father, in 1877, paid toward settling the estate. He gave $25.00 in 1878; he gave $5.00 in 1879; he gave $10.00; and in 1880 he gave $19.00, total $104.00. Then that year he went west and if he gave any more I know nothing about it. He went to New York in 1876 with a man by the name of Van Horne. I cannot recall his first name, but he was a man aged in years. When my father returned from New York he told me that the estate was there but he said we would have trouble to get it, but it's ours, the Van Horne's. He said, "we would get it some time, maybe not in my time but my children." Well that meant my brothers and myself, for there are five of us, four boys and myself. I am the oldest. My father took all his papers and his Bible with him when he went west and he had them copied and laid away so I could let my children see and know those things. I also know that my ancestors came from Holland. I also have heard my grandmother say the old folks were on the water thirteen weeks when they came to Manhattan Island, there located and bought houses. The old ones stayed there. The young ones got scattered around in Pennsylvania. Those words I copied off my father's papers. This little contract was written on sheepskin and so worn that the part could not be made out:

—CONTRACT—

To my grandson, Mathias A. Van Horne, born of my son Abraham Van Horne, now at Philadelphia, do I give my property both land and money to him, Mathias A. Van Horne, his life time and then to the next heir born with a tooth. Then it goes to this last man oldest heir, let it be male or female, as I was born with two teeth and my grandson was born with two teeth, and the next one born with teeth or a tooth his life time, then to his heir, be it male or female.

The Author presents this chapter to the memory of his beloved wife for over eighteen years, who departed this life September 29, 1923, and to his present loving wife.

Bessie Dornan Cruver. Born October 2, 1883, at Frutcheys, Monroe County, Pennsylvania, the daughter of William and Maria (Place) Cruver. She was reared in Smithfield Township, Monroe County, Pennsylvania and moved with her parents to Bartonsville, Pa. April, 1898. She graduated from the East Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania High School, with honors, in the class of 1900 and from the East Stroudsburg State Normal School, now the State Teachers College, with the class of 1901. She taught for three terms in the Public Schools of Monroe County, Pennsylvania, as follows:—1902-03 at Custards School in Hamilton Township. 1903-04 at White Oak Run in Pocono Township and Principle of the Graded School at Tannersville, in Pocono Township, 1904-05.

On May 2, 1905, she was united in marriage, at the home of the bride, by the Rev. W. E. Ellis, Pastor of the Tannersville M. E. Circuit, to Francis M. Marvin.

The photo as shown on other page was taken on the occasion of her graduation from the East Stroudsburg State Normal School 1901.

In 1907 she moved with her husband and child to Huchinson, Reno County, Kansas, where they resided for two years, returning east to Pennsylvania in 1909, however while at that place a second child came to bless the union.

She was a woman of a noble, loving, Christian character, lovingly devoted to her husband and children and although she departed this life, to answer the call of her Master, "Come up higher," at a comparatively young age, her exalting Christian influences shall live on.

A Mother's Love!

If there be one thing pure,
Where all beside is sullied;
That can endure,
When all else pass away:
If there be aught
Surpassing human deed, or word, or thought,—
It is a Mother's love!

—The Author and Husband.

How grand, how beautiful the thought,
That in the great unseen
Our souls will mingle with the ones
Who dear to us have been;
And brightest light that shineth there,
The Savior on His throne
Will dearer be to us than all
The friends that we have known.

A Tribute

Following the death of his first wife, the author, lonely and longing for companionship, some one also to jointly share with him in the responsibilities of life, directed his attentions to a charming and fascinating young divorcee of Barrett Township, Monroe County, Pennsylvania, Namely; Nina L. Price Feltham.

Born May 2nd, 1891 at Canadensis, Monroe County, Pennsylvania, the daughter of Nathan C. and Mary Eliza (Edwards) Price, a lady highly talented in Music and Art and a housekeeper hard to match anywhere.

On September 17, 1924, she became the bride of the author, being married by the Rev. Charles A. Roads, D.D. at the M. E. Parsonage at Upland, Chester County, Pa.

She has proven to be a woman of noble Christian character, a loving and devoted wife, greatly devoted to the home and family, a woman of society and one beloved by all who come in contact with her.

We trust it shall be God's will to bless her with many years of life.

It is not in the mountains,
  Nor the palaces of pride,
That love will fold his wings up
  And rejoicingly abide;
But in meek and humble natures
  His home is ever found,
As the lark that sings in heaven
  Builds its nest upon the ground.

DISTRIBUTION OF VAN HORN
MILLIONS HAS BEEN BEGUN *

Mrs. Annie M. Mallon Claims She and Son Will Get Big Share; Dr. L'Amoreaux Has Bible

Has the distribution of the Abraham Van Horn millions, represented by vast holdings of land in the heart of New York City begun?

That is a question that is concerning the one hundred or more descendants of the old Hollander, who came to this country from Amsterdam in colonial days and took up land holdings.

For more than a score of years the Van Horns and every one who could trace lineage to the family have been eagerly looking forward to this division.

From Pawtucket, R. I., comes the story that Mrs. Annie M. Mallon, of that city, formerly of Scranton and her son, David Morgan, by her first husband, will receive $1,000,000 each from the estate, Abraham Van Horn, the founder of the estate, having been the material grandfather of her first husband, Samuel Morgan. Mrs. Morgan's present husband is a trolley motorman and when the good news was received was in Scranton on business.

This recalls the efforts to secure a part of the supposed estate, variously estimated up to $80,000,000. left by Mr. Van Horn. These cover 20 or 25 years, during which much time and money was expended in efforts to get some of the money said to be due the heirs. The property representing the vast fortunes is said to be located in Holland, New York City and Scranton.

Mrs. Mallon speaking of the fortune stated that it had its founding in colonial days. Abraham Van Horn came to this country from Amsterdam, according to the story, and it is said that the money used in investment in land in New York came from there. This land is now occupied by trust companies and other financial and big business interests, which are said to have been leased originally for a period of 99 years.

Establishment of these facts, also of the lineage of the alleged heirs has been the means of much research on the part of members of the family and also the attorneys they had placed in charge of their case. However, it was said that much of the land had been acquired by the present owners by condemnation proceedings and the like.

The queen of Holland is said to be interested in the final disposition of the estate due to holdings in that country.

Mrs. Morgan's first husband, Samuel Morgan, of Scranton, was a grandson of Mrs. Julia Ann Van Horn Morgan Lewis, a direct descendant of Abraham Van Horn, original owner of the fortune.

There were many meetings of the Van Horn heirs held in Stroudsburg during the past 20 years. This was due to the fact that Dr. S. W. L'Amoreaux, a well known physician, has possession of a Bible, which belonged to Grandmother Miller, of Elmhurst, a descendant of John Van Horn, who lived in the Pocono region, in turn a descendant of Abraham Van Horn. There were also descendants in Tobyhanna and other sections of Monroe county.

Dr. L'Amoreaux had treated Mrs. Miller, who was in poor financial circumstances, and who offered the doctor the old family Bible in payment for medical services rendered which the doctor accepted. Like family Bibles in the days of yore this one contains a roster of the family and the many heirs of the Van Horn estate, considered mythical by many in the past, were very anxious to get possession of it in order to prove their lineage. There was also a report that there was a copy of the original leases of the New York property, which if true, would have been of great value to the heirs in their efforts to regain possession of the same.

Dr. L'Amoreaux, when interviewed by a staff man yesterday afternoon, denied there was any such thing as a copy of the leases in the Bible. He said he made a careful examination of the book and there was nothing of that sort in it.

However, that did not deter the heirs from annoying him almost continuously, as the doctor puts it, to see the book and examine the pages. Offers were made to buy it, but the doctor refused to sell, not that he believed that it was of any particular financial value, but for its association with the memory of the owner and the strange circumstances through which it fell into his hands.

"The Bible is around here somewhere, but I do not know where to lay my hands on it," he explained when requested to see it.

Dr. L'Amoreaux declared that he had received hundreds of letters from supposed heirs from all sections of the country desiring information concerning the Bible and its contents. Many of them made trips to Stroudsburg to see and examine it and all left rather disappointed when they found there was no copy of the supposed leases in the book.

"I can't tell you how many meetings have been held in my office by the Van Horn heirs. There were days when the office was completely filled up with them and I had no chance to carry on my business as a result. Finally I told them there was but one thing to do and that was form an organization, have a committee with power of attorney to represent them and then if there was such an estate there might be a chance to get it, although I have always considered this very remote. The result of this was that such an organization of the heirs was formed in my office.

"This, however, did not prevent others from coming in. Every year or so an article would appear in a newspaper concerning the estate and then I would be overrun again with applicants by the heirs to see that Bible. I accommodated them all. Only a few weeks ago I received a letter concerning the estate. I have destroyed it though and can't show it to you now."

"Do you remember Mrs. Mallon, who claims to have received word that she would get a big share of the estate?" was asked of the doctor.

"Yes, she was in my office several times with other heirs and I recall her very well."

The doctor did not give much credence to the settlement of the long controversy. He said at one time he had been asked if he would take an interest in the estate for the information his Bible contained, to which he readily assented.

From the tone of the doctor and his general demeanor it was plain he does not have any hopes of getting any money out of the estate, nor does he believe any one else will, the story from Pawtucket, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The above article recalled to the memory of the author of this book, the fact that his father had informed him in his early boyhood days, that his great grandmother was Ann Van Horne and a daughter of Cornelius Van Horne and that she was a granddaughter of Abram Van Horn, a wealthy New York City merchant, who had leased certain of his holdings on a ninety-nine (99) year lease, and that said property had since become very valuable and that in the event any recovery should be made by his descendants, it would be of sufficient sum to make each one of them very wealthy.

Coupling this new article with recollections of the above statement, your author immediately determined that if one Anne M. Mallon of Pawtucket, R. I., or any other, recovered one cent from any such estate that he too was entitled to recovery, even though he had no knowledge whatsoever of any efforts that had been put forth by anyone along that line, for recovery, other than occasional statements appearing in press every few years relating to this supposed long standing estate.

Immediately, I determined that my best plan of procedure would be to call a meeting of all supposed heirs at the Court House at Stroudsburg, Pa., if such an arrangement could be made, with the sole thought in mind of inquiring of any and all who might attend such a meeting.

First what they knew about the recent statement appearing in the public press.

Second, to assure myself beyond all doubt whether or not the statements made in the public press were correct and if so, why Annie Mallon or any other should recover while others should not, or just how many had received similar notices of recovery.

In fact, I wished to know the facts, the whole facts and nothing but the facts concerning this, apparent long standing case about which I had heard my father speak about twenty-five (25) years ago.

I immediately arranged accordingly for a meeting to be held in the Court House at Stroudsburg on March 11, 1925.

I expected possibly fifty or sixty to attend the called meeting, and from that number I hoped to glean the information desired, and to my great surprise it was attended by between five and six hundred people.

In his opening remarks, the chair confessed his complete ignorance concerning the Van Horne Estate, its existence or authenticity and asked that all remarks of the afternoon be confined entirely to statement concerning the existence and authenticity of such an estate and if shown that such an estate did exist, then, to statements concerning its collectibility.

It appeared to be the unanimous consensus of opinion that somehow, somewhere such an estate did exist and finally after much discussion from the floor, the Reverend J. G. Shireman of Shamokin, Pa., made the statement that he felt certain that F. B. Van Horn of Dickson Ave., Scranton, Pa., had in his possession enough information to effect a settlement of the estate within a year's time and that he had in his personal possession a sworn statement as to the money due us from Holland, following which it was moved and loudly seconded to effect at once an outstanding organization that would go to the bottom of the facts. Consequently the birth of The Van Horn Heirs Association.

The newspaper article appearing in the Record, Stroudsburg, Pa., March 12, 1925, relating to the gathering is herewith reproduced:

STROUDSBURG, PA., THURSDAY, MARCH 12, 1925

VAN HORN HEIRS ORGANIZE HERE TO FIGHT FOR MILLIONS

Francis M. Marvin Heads Association To Claim Large Estate

Visions of a share in property said to be valued at more than $80,000,000. brought to Stroudsburg yesterday from several eastern states between 500 and 600 persons who gathered at the court house and organized what is to be known as the "Greater Heirs of the Abraham Van Horn Estate Association."

Francis M. Marvin, of Bartonsville, was elected as the president of the organization, which expects to launch a legal fight to gain possession of valuable real estate in New York City and elsewhere which, it is claimed. belonged to Abraham Van Horn when he died many years ago.

The auditorium and the gallery of the court room were jammed with heirs, many were seated behind the rail, and many others were standing.

The purpose of the meeting, it was announced, was to determine the tangibility of the Van Horn estate of millions. No effort was made to establish the identity of any heirs, every action being centered on determining whether or not it is possible for the heirs to realize anything from the Van Horn estate.

With the formation of the association here yesterday afternoon, the dozen or more minor associations which have been formed in different parts of the country were absorbed by it.

In the possession of Frank B. Van Horn, of 1702 Dickson Avenue, Scranton, are papers and documents which with a few minor details, will give to the heirs of the late Abraham Van Horn a clear right of way to the estate, according to a statement made at the meeting by Rev. J. G. Shireman, of 710 East Sunbury Street, Shamokin. F. B. Van Horn also has an original will, Rev. Shireman said.

The fact that F. B. Van Horn was not present at the meeting yesterday afternoon was the cause of great consternation. It was stated, however, that he expressed a willingness to give everything over to the association.

G. R. Everitt, of Haverstraw, N. Y., was elected secretary of the greater association, and W. H. Siglin, of 31 North Third Street, Allentown, the treasurer.

President Marvin appointed a committee of six men to collect all available papers, documents, information of any available data on the estate and present it at a meeting to be held at Stroudsburg on June 15. The committee includes, John B. Cortright, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., Rev. J. G. Shireman, of 710 East Sunbury Street, Shamokin, Pa.; M. D. Van Horn of 201 Main Street, Binghamton, N. Y.; F. B. Van Horn of 1702 Dickson Ave., Scranton; Merrit R. Pharro of Bethlehem and ex-Congressman Everitt Kent, of Bangor.

Members of the Van Horn family began pouring into Stroudsburg early yesterday morning and kept on coming up until noon. At one o'clock the court room was filled, and at two o'clock, the meeting was called to order.

Following a conference meeting of The Executive Committee, held March 11, 1925, several conferences of the executive committee were held, attended in each case by the committee in part.

At the last and final committee meeting held prior to the reunion of July 4, 1925, held in the Penn-Stroud Hotel at Stroudsburg on April 18th, 1925.

Mr. F. B. Van Horn of Scranton who was in attendance proved to be the chief spokesman, and gave as his opinion that the estate was uncollectible, unsubstantiated by any facts other than a letter from an attorney, Mr. Watson. As he refused to allow the committee to examine any documents in his possession, however, most of the committee including the writer co-erced his opinion and decided to abandon our efforts.

This, however, did not meet with the opinion of the entire committee nor by any means the majority of those who attended the meeting on March 11, 1925. Consequently, in order to be fair to all concerned the president accepted the demand that a meeting be called, that all parties concerned be privileged to hear a report of the committee's finding whether favorable or unfavorable, and to accept or reject the same, consequently, the call for the reunion of July 4, 1925.

To the great surprise of all concerned more than one thousand people responded to the call to attend a family reunion to be held in Marvin's Park, Bartonsville, Pa. and there hear the report of the committee.

Following the report of the Association President, who gave as his opinion the uncollectibility of any estate which might be due them, even though they could prove themselves heirs, basing his opinion largely upon the remarks of F. B. Van Horn, made by him on April 18, 1925, he asked that the entire committee and association officials be discharged with a vote of thanks.

The report of the president was followed by many discussions from the audience numbering at least one thousand people, following which it was moved, seconded and unanimously voted that both the report of the Executive Committee and their resignation be rejected, and that they be retained and asked to disregard any statement of F. B. Van Horn, but to investigate to the bottom any leads which might have previously or on that date or which might at any near future date come into our possession, and to report at a meeting to be called by the President on some future date, and that a collection be lifted to assist in defraying any expenses which may have been or may be incurred. At this junction the president announced that if an investigation was to be made to the bottom of all leads, he would be willing to write a Van Horn History which when published, he would sell for $5.00 so that a completed record of our work could be preserved for all time to come, and that suggestion met with approval, consequently, the history here submitted.

The meeting of July 4, 1925, so highly enjoyed by all present adjourned subject to the call of the President.

While no response could be had from that date forward, from some of the members of the executive committee, other members of said committee who desired to be true to the wishes of those who wanted the whole truth from a first hand investigation, set about the task, slowly but surely with the very limited funds in the hands of the treasurer.

Our investigations led the writer, accompanied by Mr. Siglin of Philadelphia, to make one trip to Washington, D. C. and to spend a week in New York City. It was while in the latter city that we unearthed, Report on Genealogical Proof Reports.

Our plans of Procedure.
Surprise address by an able authority on our claims.

Afternoon Session—2.00 P M.

Selection of Law Firm.

Presentation of Power of Attorney Papers.

A call for united action upon all important matters requiring action by all heirs.

Under general introduction, all parties on the grounds introduced themselves.

Under a roll call of known heirs, the President cited that not a single geneological paper received thus far showed a direct connection with any possible estate, therefore there followed a roll call of all known claimants.

During the afternoon session the President gave reasons for asking for the geneological papers and outlined as near as possible the work and progress of the "Descendants Association of Indianapolis, Ind., as outlined in the book compiled by Thomas Bentley Wyckoff, entitled 'Anneke Jans Bogardus and Her New Amsterdam Estate, Past and Present'." Published in 1924 and subsequent appendices, as also the findings of the Committee of various statements, which led them to assume the possibility of the existence of a lawful claim. And he further stated that as to the possible existence of a ninety-nine (99) year lease, so often referred to, the committee had no knowledge whatsoever, nor of the existence of an estate of any Abram Van Horne so frequently mentioned. He further assured the audience that he personally, saw no possibility of assurance of recovery from any source.

After a great deal of discussion at all sessions it was moved from the audience that an executive committee of five (5) be selected to devise ways and plans for further procedure, the committee as selected from the audience was as follows:

Rev. J. G. Shireman, Shamokin, Pa.
Tilton Singer, Scranton, Pa.
Morris Van Horn, Allentown, Pa.
Mrs. Rebecca Buckaleu, Morrisville, Pa.
Mrs. Harriet Kinsell, Butler, Pa.

The same committee through its chairman, J. G. Shireman, rendered its report at the afternoon session of July 3rd, 1926, as follows:—

1st. In regard to "Power of Attorney," that we confine ourselves to two persons as "Powers of Attorney" and submit the names of W. H. Siglin of Allentown and F. M. Marvin of Bartonsville, Pa., and recommend that each claimant designate either one of these two as their personal power of attorney, in representing us toward the settlement of any of all claims which we may rightfully have in any estate in N. Y. C. or abroad.

2nd. That each claimant who shall file a power of attorney paper, with either Mr. Siglin or Mr. Marvin shall pay to the party they select as their power of attorney, the sum of fifteen dollars for their services to be rendered in their behalf, and same is to be considered as a donation to their individual power of attorney, in return for any services already rendered or to be rendered by them in the future.

3rd. We recommend that the "Power of Attorneys," shall not be allowed to grant a greater percentage than 33 1/3% to any law firm provided they submit same at any time to any law firm.

4th. We recommend that each old association have a representative appointed who is to keep in touch with the Attorneys appointed.

5th. We also recommend that F. M. Marvin employ a secretary for three months to help him in his clerical work involved, the expenses to be paid by their heirs collectively.

Signed,

Tilton Singer,
Morris Van Horn,
Mrs. Rebecca A. Buckaleu,
Mrs. Harriet Kinsell,
J. G. Shireman.

Resolutions Unanimously Adopted

Before adjournment was taken, a motion was made to hold a basket picnic in Marvin's Park, Bartonsville on Labor Day, 1926. It being understood and agreed that no business was to be transacted on that date, but that it was to be purely a social gathering; motion carried.

Owing to the great summer rush in the Mountains, little was accomplished by the committee during July and August as was understood.

Labor Day 1926

Being stormy and in spite of the inclement weather over (100) persons were present and a brief conference was held in the Webber Dance Hall at Bartonsville.

No matters of importance were discussed except a motion made by W. E. Evans of Bethlehem which was acted upon, which motion was discussed by the audience, overruling the president's proposition of refunding to all whose geneology could not be traced to the early Van Horne settlers in this country the $15.00 donation made by them to their designated Power of Attorney.

The resolution which was unanimously adopted provided that regardless of accomplishments, the assemblage place explicit confidence in the integrity and ability of both Mr. Marvin and Mr. Siglin, and that in no case, or under no circumstances were either of them to return the donar, the $15.00 contribution which was to accompany their power of attorney paper as provided.

The entire afternoon session was devoted to an address by C. J. Nungesser, of 549 Park St., Weehawken, N. J., who is in charge of the settlement of the Theobold Metzgar estate in Holland, and who has ambition to handle the Van Horne Estate in Holland and America if so desired and without any definite action the meeting adjourned.

From Labor Day, 1926 to the writing of the manuscript, preparatory to publication with the thought uppermost in mind of establishing first of all our identity or of completing our geneological lines so as to connect any or all claimants, in an undisputable way with the early Van Horne settlers in this country, our research work required practically our entire time from Labor Day, 1926 to Jan. 1, 1927, and has taken us to many cities and towns.

We have copied many wills, some of which are published elsewhere in this history. We have examined records at Easton, Doylestown and Philadelphia. We have examined the records of the Register of St. Mary's Church, Burlington, N. J., of Schradlenburgh Dutch Reformed Church at Schradlenburgh, Bergen Co., N. J. Reformed Dutch Church of Hackensack, Christ Church, Philadelphia, Old Swedes Church, Phila., First Baptist Church, Phila., First Presbyterian Church, Phila., Neshaming Presbyterian Church, Presbyterian Church, Abington, St. James P. E. Church, Perkiomen, Second Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, Presbyterian Church, Churchville, Bucks Co., Walpack Congregation, and many others, and have run down practically all available historical records, and yet with it all there are many, many missing links.

Continuing our extensive research work, the committee and powers of attorneys after consulting various attorneys and encountered many various bleak and unsurmountable obstacles until on July 5, 1927 voted to abandon for all time to come the "Van Horn Heirs Association" but desiring regardless of abandonment of all hope of recovery of a fortune to continue a genealogical research which would result in the establishment of our family record and it was accordingly moved and voted to create in place of the Van Horn Heirs Association the Van Horne Historical and Geneological Research Association of Pennsylvania.

The following officers of the new association were unanimously elected:

Francis M. Marvin, Bartonsville, Pa., President & Historian.
Rev. J. G. Shireman, Shamokin, Pa., Vice President.
Rev. Jacob Barrall, Shamokin, Secretary.
W. E. Evans, Treasurer, Bethlehem, Pa.

President Marvin, immediatelly tendered resignation as President, but agreed to accept that of Historian and the Rev. J. G. Shireman was then unanimously declared elected President.

Following the organization of this new association a number of enthusiastic, energetic and capable members of the family from various sections of the country pledged the historian their unflinching support and co-operation.

To this splendid group of volunteers whose cuts are shown on the opposite page the historian owes a great deal of gratitude. They have labored faithfully helping to make the history possible.

With the publication and distribution of this history the Association ceases its activities and as an organization passes into history.

OUR CLAIMS

For the sole benefit of those who are in doubt we submit herewith a statement of our claims and contentions exactly as presented by Powers of Attorney, F. M. Marvin and W. H. Siglin to W. A. Gebhart & Sons, Attorneys, Clinton, N. J. and Jersey City, N. J., Jan. 1927, for their consideration, action or advice and removed from their hands Aug. 1927, because of their failure to give the matter their consideration because of their pressure of current business.

The claims and contentions, exactly as presented to Gebhardt & Sons, was later presented to W. A. Kuntz, Attorney, Washington, D. C., who in turn, turned the matter over to Edward L. Hunter, Attorney, who after considerable research and investigation advised the abandonment of all hopes of recovery, consequently our action of dissolution and abandonment of all hopes of recovering anything.

The exact copy of our written claims and contentions as presented to attorneys follows:

FIRST:—Re: Anneke Jans Bogardus Case:

We herewith submit, a book entitled, "Anneke Jans Bogardus and her New Amsterdam Estate, Past and Present."

as compiled by,

Thomas Bentley Wyckoff,
Indianapolis, Ind.

The above together with appendices H. I. & J. published in 1924-25. Also the Annual Report of the Descendants Association, Incorporated, 1925. Together with the above we submit herewith a copy of the Descendants Herald as of January, 1926. Also a letter file marked Exhibit X.

We take it from book, appendices, Herald and letter file marked Exhibit X., that the descendants association of Indianapolis, Ind., have conducted through legal and other sources an almost exhaustless research and have succeeded in establishing some very plausible facts and they will, in all probability, and according to statement made by them, press their claims into the courts in spite of adverse decisions of the New York Courts previously rendered and it is therefore our desire to co-operate with them in every possible way, for we are certain that their success would also be a success to many, if not to all of the Van Horn and Van Horn descendants in this country, through marriage, which we hope to show through our genealogical proofs.

The above publications we believe to be thoroughly self-explanatory.

SECONDLY:—

We submit herewith a book, entitled:
"New Harlem, Past and Present" containing maps and charts
By Carl Horton Pierce and at the same time call attention to an unprocurable book entitled:

"Revised History of Harlem"
By Ryker,

as found in the New York Public Library,
42nd and 5th Ave., N. Y. C.

We beg to call attention to the clipping from the New York Times as appearing therein and we hold that the above books and clipping to be self explanatory and deal with the New Harlem Grants and their disposition, this grant long having been a bone of contention. However, we know of no court litigation. This is a claim in which the Van Horne and Van Horne descendants are interested through a direct marriage with the grantees and in this connection we also call attention to Valentine Manuel (1861) or Manuel of the Common Council of N. Y. C. with additions and clippings contained therein.

We have found statement, which we have not as yet confirmed and which we ask our attorneys to investigate and determine the fact. The statement is to the effect that: The New York State Legislature by Chapter 115 N. Y. State Law 1820, passed an act in which were named certain trustees, to whom title of the land as has been granted to the inhabitants of Harlem under the Nicolls and Dougan Grants was transferred to said trustees to be sold by them and they to make disposition of the proceeds of such sale, the validity of the act, we have been informed was passed upon by Chancellor Kent, August 23, 1825.

If the above be the case, we are desirous of knowing who the trustees named therein were, and also what became of the proceeds.

In this connection there are two other apparently well founded rumors which to date we have been unanble to either verify or deny. They are: (A) That a number of years ago the U. S. Government in making certain excavations and change in the Hell's Gate Section, confiscated and condemned certain grounds belonging to this grant and placed in trust the purchase sum then approved, to the credit of the "Unknown Heirs of the Harlem Estate" and that said money is still in trust to this date. (B) The same rumor is prevalent everywhere in connection with alleged condemnation proceedings reported to have been instituted during the building of the first railroad into N. Y. C.

THIRD:—

As a sidelight we herewith submit a book "English Crown Grants," by S. L. Mershon, same being self-explanatory.

FOURTH:—

We are submitting herewith a chart and census of N. Y. C. as of 1703, when many of the Van Horne's owned property in N. Y. C., it having for nearly a century past, been claimed by members of the family regardless of how far scattered, that certain Van Horne ancestor or ancestors, that is to say, either Abram, Gerritt, David, William or John Van Horne, who at one time resided and owned land in the Wall Street section of N. Y. City, had leased to the Common Council of N. Y. C. or to others, certain of their holdings for a period of ninety-nine (99) years and that at the expiration of said lease, said property was never returned to his lawful heirs then living, and this we feel can never truthfully be determined until the title of their original holdings be examined by a legal authority, assisted by a civil engineer and we recommend in that capacity, Franklin Bittner, 81 Irving Place, N. Y. C.

FIFTH:—

According to the Ryker Manuscripts for which, according to the New York Times of October 20, 1918, the Trust Companies of N. Y. C. paid no small sum of money, Anna Maria Jansen, wife of Cornelius Jansen Van Horne and first Van Horne in this country, shared with her brother Wolfert Webber and her sister, Anneke Jan Bogardus, in legacies, both in Holland and America.

The records also show the grants as made to Wolfert Webber. And as to the probability of money still remaining in Holland and belonging to the noted Webber family, we have but a limited knowledge, the most of which we acquired from the Webber History as edited in 1878 by Mr. A. Button and we herewith submit the entire history, which gives considerable light on claims in that direction, same being self-explanatory; we herewith quote but one paragraph contained therein, in part. I also find in a record kept in London, England, a reference to this Holland estate, also similar records kept in New York, as legacy of Wolfert Webber of $670,000 on interest since 1610, at 2½% rate of Holland interest.

Another paragraph quotes Harpers Weekly No. 886, Vol. 17, Nov. 8, 1873.

"About the middle of the seventeenth century, one, Sarah Webber, died in Holland, bequeathing property then valued at 36,000 English pounds to her heirs. But the property was to be invested at compound interest until the third generation thereafter should appear upon the stage of life."

We attach also a letter from Holland to Mrs. Stumm.

We further note in the Documentary Records of New Amsterdam, that Cornelius Jansen Van Horne appointed a Power of Attorney to collect the interest on money due him in Holland.

Now as to the Question: Is there an estate in Holland still due these descendants as they have long been taught to believe? A question we submit to you for determination. We have not been able to determine, however, Mr. C. J. Nungesser of Weehawken, N. J., who claims that he is about to effect a settlement of the Theobold Metzgar Estate in Holland, very nearly parallel to this one, informs the committee that we have, as above stated, more light to work upon than he had about four years ago when he began work upon the Metzgar Estate.

SIXTH:—

The records of New Amsterdam show that Cornelius Jansen Van Horne was a property owner on Wall Street, April 19, 1665. See Vol. 5, Page 222, Record of New Amsterdam, 1653, 1674.

We note in the records also that Abram Van Horne received a patent to 8000 acres of land in the Mohawk Valley and have been unable as yet to determine what disposition was made of this property, as he makes no mention of same in his will nor have we been able to locate proper deeds of conveyance.

Respectfully Submitted,
Executive Committee,
Van Horn Heirs Association.

ANCESTRAL WILLS

We submit herewith the wills of some of our prominent ancestors, especially those of our ancestors who have been prominently mentioned throughout our investigations, some of which were written over Two Hundred and sixty (260) years ago.

A number of these wills were copied by the author from the various volumns, "Abstracts of early N. Y. C. Wills" as found in the New York Public Library and we assume them to be correct.

The foot notes following the wills of Anneke Jans or Janse and of Abrm. Van Horne we assume were written by the compiler of the abstracts of wills, unless otherwise stated.

The wills here published represent but a very small percent of the wills and abstracts of wills, read and examined by your author during his almost exhaustless research.

In no will examined have we found mention of a ninety-nine (99) year lease, but all wills, considering the educational facilities as offered in those early colonial days, show a remarkable degree of intelligence and a high respect for their Creator.

WILL OF Anneke Janse,
Anneke Jans,
(or)
Anneke Jans Bogardus.

The Will of Anneke Janse (written in the Dutch language) is recorded in book of Notarial papers, page 296, in the County Clerk's Office, Albany. It is given here from its close connection with the City of New York, where most of her life was passed.

Will of Anneke Janse Bogardus

In the name of the Lord, amen. Know all men by these presents, That this day, the 29th of January, 1663, in the afternoon, about 4 o'clock, appeared before me, Derrick Van Schelhuyne, Notary Public, in the presence of the witnesses hereafter mentioned, Anneke Janse, widow of Roeloff Janse, of Master Land, and now lastly widow of the Rev. Everhardus Bogardus, residing in the village of Beverwyck, and well known to us, Notary and witnesses; the said Anneke Janse lying on her bed in a state of sickness, but perfectly sensible and in full possession of her mental powers, and capable to testate, to which sound state of mind I can fully testify. The said Anneke Janse considering the shortness of life and certainty of death and the uncertainty of the hour or time, she, the said Anneke Janse, declared after due consideration, without any persuasion, compulsion, or retraction, this present document to be her last Will and Testament, in manner following: First of all recommending her immortal soul to the Almighty God, her Creator and Redeemer, and consigning her body to Christian burial, and herewith revoking and annulling all prior testamentary dispositions of any kind whatsoever, and now proceeding anew, she declared to nominate and institute as her sole heirs her children Sarah Roeloffsen, wife of Hans Kierstede; Catrina Roeloffsen, wife of Johanes Van Brugh; also Jannettije and Rachel Hartges, the children of her deceased daughter, Fytje Roeloffsen, during her life the wife of Peter Hartges, representing together their mother's place; also her son Jan Roeloffsen, and finally, William, Cornelius, Jonas and Peter Bogardus, and to them to bequeath all her real estate, chattels, money, gold and silver, coined and uncoined, jewels, clothes, linnen, woolen, household furniture, and all property whatsoever, without reserve or retraction of any kind, to be disposed of after her decease and divided by them in equal shares, to do with the same at their own will and share without any hindrance whatsoever; provided nevertheless with this express condition and restriction, that her four first born children shall divide between them out of their father's property the sum of one thousand guilders, to be paid to them out of the proceeds of a certain farm, situated on Manhattan land, bounded on the North River, and that before any other dividend takes place; and as three of these children at the time of their marriage received certain donations, and as Jan Roeloffsen is yet unmarried, he is to receive a boat and milch cow; and to Jonas and Peter Bogardus she gives a house and lot situate to the Westward of the house of the Testatrix in the village of Beverwyck, going in length until the end of a bleaching spot, and in breadth up to the room of her, the testatrix, house, besides a boat for both of them and a milch cow to each of them, the above to be an equivalent of what the married children have received. Finally, she, the testatrix, gives to Roeloff Kierstede, the child of her daughter Sara, a silver mug; to Annatje Van Brugh, the child of her daughter Catrina, also a silver mug; and to Jannetje and Rachel Hartges, the children of her daughter Fytje, a silver mug each; and to the child of William Bogardus, named Fytje also a silver mug; all the above donations to be provided for out of the first moneys received, and afterwards the remainder of the property to be divided and shared as aforesaid. The Testatrix declares this document to be her only true last will and testament, and desiring that after her decease it may supersede all other documents, codicils, donations, or any other instruments whatsoever; and in case any formalities may have been omitted, it is her will and desire the same benefits may accrue as if they actually had been observed; and she requested me, Notary Public, to make one or more lawful instruments in the usual form of this, her, testatrix, last will and desire.

Signed, sealed and delivered at the house of the Testatrix in the Village of Beverwyck, in New Netherland, in the presence of Ruth Jacobse Van Schoonderweert and Evert Wendell, Witnesses.

This the X mark of Anneke Janse with her own hand.
Rutger Jacobus
Evert Jacobus Wendell
D. V. Schelluyne, Notary Public, 1663.

(Note.—Anneke Janse was the wife of Roeloff Jansen who came to New Amsterdam about 1631. In 1636 he obtained a grant from Gov. Van Tweller for a farm or Bowerie of about 62 acres, which has long been a bone of contention between the heirs of Anneke Janse and Trinity Church in New York. Roeloff Jansen died about 1637, and his widow soon married Rev. Evardus Bogardus, and lived with him at what is now No. 23 Whitehall Street, New York.

Dominie Bogardus was lost at sea, by the wreck of the "Princess," in which he was returning to Holland. His wife then went to Beverwyck and died there. She was buried in the yard of the Old Dutch Church in Albany. Her house and lot in Beverwyck were sold by her heirs to Dirck Wessells. "Bounded East by land of Jonas and Peter Bogardus and West by Evert Janse Wendell, Being 2 rods 8½ ft. wide, and 5 rods 9 ft. long." The price was "1000 guilders in good whole marketable beaver skins, at 8 guilders a piece."

Chapter XI Page 131

Everardus Bogardus, dominie, the first established clergyman in this city, lived here in (1663.) A church, constructed of wood, was erected for him on the present North side of Pearl street, between Whitehall and Broad streets. This edifice being exposed to assault, should the Indians surprise the community while at their devotions, was abandoned in the time of the Indian War of 1642, at which time a church was erected within the walls of the fort, where Dominie Bogardus afterwards officiated. He married in this city the widow of Roelof Jansen, one of the earliest settlers. This lady owned, in right of her former husband, a farm on the North River, in the neighborhood of the present Canal Street, containing 62 acres, which had been granted to Mr. Jansen in 1636. At the time of her marriage to Dominie Bogardus she had four children, and by Dominie Bogardus she had also four children. This farm was, in the year 1671, conveyed by the heirs, with the exception of one of her sons, Cornelius, to Governor Lovelace, and became afterward the property of Trinity Church. Her son Cornelius, not having joined in the conveyance, his heirs claim ⅛ interest in this valuable property, which has been the subject of litigation for many years, and is well known as the "Anneke Jan's suit." The residence of Dominie Bogardus in this city was on the present Whitehall St. East side, between Bridge and Stone Streets. Having embarked on board the ship Princess in the year 1647, on a visit to his fatherland, the vessel was cast away on the English coast, and Mr. Bogardus, with more than 80 others, perished. He was succeeded in the pastoral charge of the Dutch congregation in this city by the Rev. Johannes Backerus. It is to be remarked that the original name of the family was Bogard or Bogaert, the termination "us," assumed by him being then a common custom among clergymen and other professors of learning, as giving a classical definition of the ordinary name. The name of his successor was originally "Backer" or, as it would be called in English, the Rev. John Baker. Subsequently, in this City, the Rev. Messrs. Megapolensis, Drissius, Selinus and others, held the pastoral charge of the congregation.

Will of Abraham Van Horne

In the name of God, Amen. I, Abraham Van Horne, of New York, Esq. I leave to my wife Mary, the use of all my real and personal estate during her widowhood. After her decease I leave to my daughters Margaret and Anne Van Horne, £500. I leave to my son David the dwelling house and ground where I now live, also my store-house and ground adjoining, both situated on the South side of Wall Street, and he is to pay to my executors £500. I leave to my son Samuel my dwelling house and ground now in tenure of Abraham Lynsen, also my bolting and baking house and ground, both situate on the North side of Wall Street, and he is to pay to my executors £400. My executors are to sell the rest of my estate to the best advantage. I leave to my sons David and Samuel all implements belonging to the bolting trade. All the rest of my estate is left to my sons and my daughter Catherine, wife of Peter Cock, Merchant, of Philadelphia, Margaret and Anne. "All my negro slaves are to be sold to the highest bidder among my children, to prevent their falling into the hands of strangers." Whereas my late daughter Mary, late wife of Governor William Burnet, received from me a very considerable sum of money and other things, nevertheless, if my wife shall think it convenient and necessary to give to my two grand-children, the children of my said daughter, any money or other things, she is empowered to do so; and after her death my executors have the same power. I make my wife and children executors.

NOTE. The lot and house left to David Van Horne is now the East part of the Customs House, and includes Hanover Street south of Wall Street. The lots on the North side of Wall Street is No. 56 and also No. 69. Gov. William Burnet had three children by his second marriage, but one of them seems to have died before the above Will was made.—W. S. P.

Will of Garrett Van Horne

In the name of God, Amen. I, Garret Van Horne, of New York, Merchant, being in good health. I leave to my son Cornelius all my wearing apparel, and all gold and silver belonging to my body, over and above his share of my estate.

"Whereas I have advanced and given unto several of my children sundry sums of money and other things of value, and if it pleases God to spare my life, may yet add much more," a true account shall be kept in a book, and as some have had more and some less, they are to be made equal. My three grand-children, the children of my late daughter, Anna Maria Beekman, are to have an equal share with my own children, and what I have advanced to her shall be counted on their share. My executors have power to sell my real estate and the proceeds are to go to my children, Cornelius, Catherine, wife of Dr. Archibald Fisher, Eliazbeth, wife of Dominie Henry Boole, Anna, wife of John DeWitt, and Margaret, and to my three grand-children, Gerardus, Elizabeth, and Cornelius Beekman, children of my late daughter, Anna Maria Beekman. I appoint my son Cornelius and my daughters, Executors. December 28, 1730

Will of Abraham Van Horne, Wealthy New York Merchant Who Married Catherine Rutgers

From Abstract "Record of Wills" 1754-1760, Page 131.

In the name of God Amen. I, Abraham Van Horne of New York, merchant, being in good state of health, as I have been for some time past.

I leave to my wife Catherine the use of all household goods, plate, and furniture, and my negro man and women slaves, during her life, also all the rents and profits of those two lots of grounds and buildings, that is to say, No. 5, which I purchased from John Provost and Eve his wife, and the lot number 4, which I purchased from James Cebra, both lots being in the outward of New York, during her life. I leave to my son James (5) shillings in full bar as heir at law. Also £500 when he is 21, and he is to pay to my wife the interest on £200 during her life, if she require the same.

I leave to my daughters Catherine, Margaret, Elizabeth, and Eve £500 each, when 21, and they are to pay to my wife the interest on £200.

My executors are to sell all real Estate, and the interest to be paid to my wife, to maintain my children. After the death of my wife, all my estate is to be sold and divided among my children and whereas by the will of my father, John Van Horn, my son James is entitled to 1/5 of his estate, now therefor, the share I have given to my son James is on condition that he takes no advantage of his fathers will, but will allow his sisters an equal share with himself. I make my wife and my brother, James Van Horne and James Cebra Executors.

Will of John Van Horn
1735.

(As Copied in full from his Original Will)

In the name of God, Amen. I, John Van Horn, of the city of New York, merchant, being in perfect health and sound memory and disposing mind (blessed be God for same) and know the certainty of Death and uncertainty of life, do make and ordain this my last will and testament for manner and form following:

FIRST: I commit my soul into the hands of Almighty God being fully preserved by his Holy Spirit through the merits of my Saviour Jesus Christ, to obtain pardon for all my sins and to inherit Everlasting life, my body to a decent burial at the directions of my executor and my just debts and funeral charges being paid and satisfied, I do order and dispose of all my temporal estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me, in manner and form following, that is to say,

FIRST: I do give and bequeath unto my son Cornelius, Six Hundred Pounds, current money.

ITEM 1: I give and bequeath unto my son, Cornelius, the following terms and heriditiments, in the province of East New Jersie (that is to say) the tract of land I bought of Samuel Rosse, called and known by the name of Roycefield, the three quarters thereof belonging to me and three small pieces of land also bought to said Samuel Rosse, containing together sixteen hundred acres be the same more or less with all the rights and privileges thereunto belonging.

ITEM 2: I give, devise and bequeath the above named lands unto my said son Cornelius, his heirs and assigns forever.

ITEM 3: I give, devise and bequeath unto my son, Andrew, all my lands in the township of Piscutqua which I bought or had by mortgage deed of Samuel Rosse and John Burrows, together with the mill, stock of cattle and horses, sheep, together with all and singular others, the hereditiments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, to have and to hold unto him my said son, Andrew, his heirs and assigns forever.

ITEM 4: I give, devise and bequeath unto my son, Abraham, out of the tract of land I bought of Dochword and Sommers, called and known by the name of Rockey Hill in eastern Jersey and out the lot number six, Six Hundred Acres as it is now laid out on a certain draught of Division between me and my brothers, bounded eastward by and southwardly with Bedians Brook as the said brook runs; southwardly by my brother Abraham's lot number two, westerly by my brother Garnett's lot number five, Northwardly by my own land, easterly and southerly by Henry Neals lands as his line runs with all the houses, barns, orchards and all the rights and privileges thereunto belonging (except the stream or Bedians Brook, the half of the liberty of said brook and two acres of land of each side of the said brook where he pleases to take it up. I give to my son James as hereafter is expressed,

ITEM 5: I give, devise, and bequeath unto my son, James, all the remainder of the same tract belonging unto me from the easterness line of the lot number one where now Edward Philips lives on to Milstone River, bounded Northwardly by Francis Elringtons land where now Robert Letice Wager, Junior lives, on Easterly by Milstone River, as the River runs Southerly by James Leonard and Thomas Leonards land, Westerly by lot number one, whereon Edward Philips lives on as aforesaid, containing thirteen hundred acres be the same more or less with all the stock of Wheat, cattle, horses, mares, sheep, plantations, houses and barns thereon with his choice of the negroes and all hereditiments, rights and privileges thereunto belonging or appertaining, also two acres of land with the half of Bedians Brook, with all the rights and privileges thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining wherever he shall please to take it up, within my bounds.

ITEM 6: I give, devise and bequeath the above named lands unto my said son, James, his heirs and assigns, forever. It is my intent and meaning that wherever my said sons, Abraham and James, conclude and agree to erect or build a mill on the said Bedians Brook that each of them shall have one half part or mority thereof. My son, Abraham, also adding two acres of land out of his land for the use and benefits of the said mill.

ITEM 7: It is further my will that my hereafter named executors should pay unto my son, Andrew and my son, James, and to each of them, One Thousand Pounds upon demand out of my bonds due to me.

ITEM 8: I give and bequeath to my son, James, also the House where I now live with my storehouse fronting on the dock with the ground and yard rights and privileges thereunto belonging, he paying to his brother Cornelius, to him his heirs or assigns, Two Hundred Pounds current money of New York. To his brother, Andrew to him his heirs or assigns Two Hundred Pounds, current money of New York. To his brother, Abraham, Two Hundred Pounds, current money of New York, to him, his heirs or assigns. To his sister Catherine, Two Hundred Pounds, current money of New York, to her, her heirs or assigns. As for the lands bequeath to my son, Cornelius, by virtue of this my last will I have already given him a deed for the same, and for his house so that now he comes in but for an equal share with the rest of my children of my whole estate. Estate both real and personal already disposed of by virtue of this my last will and testament; also my daughter, Catherine, I have given her, her portion and the house bought by John Outman, so that she also comes in for one equal share with the rest of my children of both real and personal of all my estate not disposed of by virtue of this my last will and testament as hereinafter is expressed.

ITEM 9: I gave and bequeath to my son, Cornelius, to my son Andrew, my daughter, Catherine, my son, James, each of them an equal fifth part of all the remainder of my whole estate, both real and personal wheresoever it is or may be found, to them and each of them and each, their heirs and assigns forever. My son, Abraham. I also give him one fifth part during his natural life of all my whole estate, both real and personal not disposed of by virtue of this my last will and testament, share and share alike to be equally divided among them and after his decease, I give and bequeath his full fifth part to his children lawfully begotten by him, to them, their heirs and assigns. I provide young John Van Horn, he is to have a double portion of the full fifth part so given him by virtue of this my last will and testament, and I give my hereinafter named executor full power to dispose of all my real and personal estate not already disposed of by virtue of this my last will and testament, and to let my son, Abraham, have his fifth part during his natural life and within fourteen days after his decease.

And if his whole estate shall then amount to more than what he has received by virtue of this my last will and testament, should be delivered or secured to the best advantage of my said son, Abraham's children, which I leave to the management of these my hereinafter mentioned executors, and in case any of my above named children shall happen to die without issue lawfully begotten of their body that then any of my estate above mentioned or any part thereof be it real or personal so given by me by virtue of this my last will and testament shall revert and return to all my said children theirs in being or to the heir or heirs of their bodies lawfully begotten of their bodies as aforesaid and to be equally divided among them, each an equal portion or part thereof.

ITEM 10: It is my will that if any of aforesaid children or their heirs shall not be satisfied with the contents so contained in this my last will and testament but should quarrel and create law suits, then and in such case I do hereby declare and exclude those of all the rights, privileges and benefits so contained in this my last will and testament for ever and to the end that full satisfaction shall be given to my said children. It is my earnest desire and request that my said children, my executors then in being shall within three months after my decease, make as true and perfect inventory of all my estate, real or personal, not already bequeathed in this my last will and testament.

AND LASTLY: I do ordain, constitute and appoint my said son, Cornelius, my son, Andrew, my son Abraham, and my son James, to be my executors and my daughter, Catherine, executrix of this my last will and testament, to see the same duly executed and performed and vacating and declaring for null and void all former and other wills by me heretofore made, either in word or writing. I do publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, at New York this twenty-third day of June, Anno Domini, One Thusand seven Hundred and Thirty-three and in the seventh year of the reign of our sovereign Lord King George, the Second of England.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto put my hand and seal the day and year above written.

Will of Andrew Van Horn

In the name of God, Amen. I, Andrew Van Horn of Piscatua in the County of Middlesex and Province of New Jersey.

GENTLEMEN, being of sound and disposing mind and memory for which I praise God, do make and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following:

FIRST and principally, I recommend my soul to Almighty God in hopes of Eternal Salvation through the merits of my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and my body to be decently buried at the discretion of my executor herein after named and as for and concerning my worldly estate,

I devise and bequeath the same as followeth:

FIRST: I order and appoint that all my just debts and funeral charges be paid and discharged in some convenient time after my decease.

ITEM 1: I give, devise and bequeath all the rest and residue of my estate, real and personal whatsoever and wheresoever unto my dear and loving wife, Mary Van Horn, my son James Van Horn and my daughters, Catherin and Sarah Van Horn to be equally divided between them, their heirs and assigns forever, share and share alike, but in case any of my said children should happen to die before they arrive to the age of twenty-one years or marriage, that then and in such case I will devise and bequeath such part and share of such child or children dying to the survivor or survivors of my said devisees, their heirs and assigns forever.

ITEM 2. I give, devise and bequeath the residue and profits of all my said estate, real and personal unto my said loving wife, Mary Van Horn for her support and the support and bringing up and maintenance of my said children until the youngest of my said children shall arrive to the age of twenty-one years, and whereas there are certain lands of and belonging to my father's estate whereunto I have a certain right by virtue of the last will and testament of my said father, I do for the better dividing thereof, hereby authorize and impower my said executors or such of them as shall act and join in a division of the said laws to execute, give and to grant such deeds and instruments of writing as may be thought necessary for dividing the same.

ITEM 3. I do hereby nominate and appoint my said wife, Mary Van Horn, executrix and my brother James Van Horn and my brother-in-law, Philip Kearny, Executors of this my last will and testament hereby revoking and making null and void any will or wills made by me at any time heretofore made ratifying this to be my last will and testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I these, Andrew Van Horn, have hereunto set my hand and seal, date this Ninth day of September, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Forty-two.

Will of Bernard Van Horn

In the name of God Amen, the Fourteenth day of April in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty. I, Bernard Van Horn, of Northampton, the County of Bucks and Province of Pennsylvania, being but weakly in body but of perfect mind and memory thanks be given to God. Therefore calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last will and testament, that is to say, principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul unto the Haven of Almighty God that gave it and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in decent Christian burial at the direction of my executor. Nothing doubting but at the General Resurrection shall receive the same again by the Mighty Power of God and as touching such worldly estate when with it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form.

FIRSTLY; after my debts and funeral charges be duly paid, I give and bequeath unto my sister, Charity Vanderen, the use and benefit or full interest of Two Hundred and Fifty Pounds to be paid yearly by my executor during the natural life of my before mentioned sister, and after decease the before said Two Hundred and Fifty Pounds be equally divided among the lawful heirs of her body.

SECONDLY: My mind and will is that the remainder of my estate be equally divided between my brothers, Henry Van Horn, Katherine Hagerman and Jane Hagerman and my brother John Van Horn. Three children, one equivalent share with my said brother Henry, sister, Katherine and sister, Jane, to be equally divided among the before mentioned three children.

LASTLY: I nominate and appoint my trusty friend Garret Wyncook and Sadford Sanserdon to be the whole and sole executors of this my last will and testament and I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke and disannul all and every other former testament, Wills, legacies, bequeaths and executors by me in any way before named. Willed and bequeath ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last will and testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year above written.

Will of Christian Van Horn

In the name of God, Amen.

The eighteenth day of June Anno. Dom. 1748, I Christian Van Horn of Northampton Township in the county of Bucks and Province of Pennsylvania, Yeoman, being in good health of body and of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, thanks be to God. Therefore calling to mind the mortality of my body knowing that it is appointed unto man once to die, do make this my last will and testament as followeth:

FIRST and PRINCIPALLY, I give and recommend my soul to God that gave it and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in decent Christian burial at the discretion of my executor, nothing doubting but that at the General Ressurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty Power of God. And as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me with I give and dispose of the same in the following manner and form:

IMPRS. I will that my just debts and funeral expenses be all duly discharged and paid by my executors out of my personal estate.

ITEM 1: I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Williamkee Van Horn, my best feather bed and all the furniture thereunto belonging, one chest of drawers, one cupboard or case to keep linen in, two of my best pewter dishes, one dozen of pewter plates, one dozen pewter spoons, one brass kettle, two iron pots, one brass skillet, a fire shovel and tongs, one small chest, one warming pan, two good cows and what milk vessels she shall have occasion of and one female negro at her own choice.

ALSO, at the end of one year after my decease, I give unto my wife, Williamkee, the sum of One Hundred Pounds Currant money of Pennsylvania, to be raised out of my personal estate all the good chattels and money to be to her, her heir and assign.

ALSO, I give unto my beloved wife, Williamkee, the use of two rooms in my now dwelling house of her own choice a part of the cellar and a garden near to the house not less than twelve square perches, also four barrels of cider yearly when fruit is to be had and what apples she shall have occasion of out of the orchard both for summer and winter and also six fleeces of wool and twenty pounds of flax yearly and every year and pasturage and hay for two cows both summer and winter, and the use of my riding chair and two horses at any time when she shall want them. All the last mentioned privileges and chattels to be allowed unto her by my son Barnard Van Horn out of that plantation where I now dwell so long as she shall remain my widow and no longer.

ALSO, I give unto my wife, Williamkee, the sum of Ten Pounds current money of Pennsylvania yearly to be paid unto her by my three sons, Henry Van Horn, John Van Horn and Christian Van Horn, equally between them so long as she shall remain my widow and no longer.

ITEM 2: I give, devise and bequeath unto my son, Barnard Van Horn, the plantation where I now dwell as the same hath been lately surveyed by Benjamin Field, situated in Northampton aforesaid, adjoining to fifty acres of land which I have lately conveyed to my son, Barnard; Beginning at a post standing by Neshameny Creek, extending thence North, Seventy-four degrees West, Ninety Perches to a stone; thence North Fourteen degrees West, Fifty-three perches to an heap of stones; thence South, Seventy-three degrees, West, One Hundred and Twenty-five perches and half of a perch to a post; thence by the fifty acres, North Seven degrees West, One Hundred and Sixty perches to a post; thence South eighty-eight degrees East One Hundred and Forty-six Perches to a hickory; thence South, Fifty-three Degrees East One Hundred and Thirteen perches to a post; thence South, Sixteen Degrees West Forty perches to an heap of stones; thence South, Fifty-nine degrees East, Forty and Five perches to a spanish oak by the said Creek; thence down the said Creek by the several courses thereof, to the place of beginning. Containing Two Hundred and Five Acres with the appurtenances, subject to the payment and privileges herein before bequeathed to my beloved wife, Williamkee, out of the same so long as she shall remain my widow to him his heirs and assigns forever and

I ALSO, give and bequeath unto my son Barnard Van Horn, my large Bible, my clock and Cave, two cows, six sheep, a cart and gears thereunto belonging and the first choice of my negroes to him his heirs and assigns.

ITEM 3. I give, devise and bequeath unto my son, Henry Van Horn, that Messuage plantation and two hundred acres of the land thereunto belonging, situated in Newton Township, where he now dwells with the appurtenances subject to the payment of three pounds, six shillings and eight pence yearly unto my beloved wife, Williamkee, being one third part of the Ten Pounds before bequeathed to my said wife so long as she shall remain my widow and no longer. To him his heirs and assigns forever, and I will that if my son, Henry Van Horn, shall be minded to purchase the residence of the land belonging to the said plantation he shall have the same at Twenty Shillings per acre and I do hereby impower my executor to convey the same to him at the rate in fee simple. But if my son, Henry, be not minded to purchase the land as aforesaid, then the same shall be sold as hereafter shall be mentioned.

ITEM 4. I give, devise and bequeath unto my son, John Van Horn, Thirty-two acres of land, situated in Northampton aforesaid, adjoining next to the East End of the land hereinafter bequeathed to my daughter, Charity Van Duehren, wife of Godfrey Van Duehren, with the appurtenances subject to the payment of Three Pounds, Six Shillings and Eight Pence yearly unto my said beloved wife, Williamkee, being one third part of the ten pounds before bequeathed to my said wife so long as she shall remain my widow and no longer, to him his heirs and assigns forever.

ITEM 5: When my son, Christian, Van Horn, shall attain unto his full age of twenty-one years, I give, devise and bequeath unto him One Hundred Eighty-seven acres of land situated in Northampton aforesaid adjoining to the land herein before bequeathed to my son Barnard, with the appurtenances subject to the payment of three pounds, six shillings and eight pence yearly unto my said beloved wife so long as she shall remain my widow and no longer, to him his heirs and assigns forever.

ALSO, I give unto my said son, Christian, the second child of my negroes, two of my best horses, six sheep, a wagon, a plow, a harrow and gears for two horses and all my wearing apparel to him his heirs and assigns.

AND I intend to build a house and a barn on the land hereby bequeathed to my son, Christian Van Horn, but if the same be not built in my life time then and not Etc. I give unto him the sum of Thirty Pound money aforesaid to him his heirs and assigns.

ITEM 6: I give and bequeath unto my daughter, Anne Corsen, wife of Cornelius Corsen, the sum of Fifty-nine Pounds aforesaid to her and her heirs.

ITEM 7: I give and bequeath unto my daughter, Catherine Hageeman, wife of Henry Hageeman, the sum of Two Pounds money aforesaid to her and her heirs.

ITEM 8: I give and bequeath unto my daughter, Jane Hageeman, wife of John Hageeman, the sum of Five Pounds money aforesaid, to her and her heirs.

ITEM 9: I do hereby order and impower my executor hereinafter named so soon as they can after my decease and for the best price they can to see and convey all my lands in the township of Northampton and Middletown to any person or persons that will purchase the same that is all that is not bequeathed by this my last will, and the land that is above two hundred acres belonging to the plantation hereinbefore bequeathed to my son, Henry, if he will not take the same as before mentioned, and I will that the money before bequeathed to my three daughters, Ann Corsen, Catherine Hageeman, and Jan Hageeman, be paid out of the first money arising by the sale of the said lands and to be paid unto them by my executor and the residue thereof to be disposed of as followeth:

CHRISTIAN VAN HORN.

Our Trust in God

When the joys of youth are o'er,
Faded to return no more,
When our path has darker grown,
And our hearts are sad and lone,
When no kindred smile we see—
Father! we trust in Thee.

When the storm cloud darkly grows
And the lurid lightning glows,
When no earthly voice we hear,
In the midnight tempest drear,
And no look of love we see—
Father! we will trust in Thee.

When our friends become ingrate,
And our hearth is desolate;
When are fled the joys we knew
Transient as the summer dew,
When no dawning light we see,
Father! we will trust in Thee.

When our locks are thin and white
And fading eyes fortell the night,
When our brow is furrowed o'er
And we near the parting shore,
When the vail of death we see,
Father! we will trust in Thee.

Interesting Ancestral Family References

The Author in his diligent search for information unearthed from various books, manuscript, etc., many very interesting bits of reference to our early ancestors, a few of which are here printed for preservation in connection with our family record.

RE:—ANNEKE JANS BOGARDUS

"On the Register of New Netherland, we find that Tryn Jansen, said by some to have been the Mother of Anneke Jans Bogardus, was a licensed midwife and the first licensed midwife in New Amsterdam, 1630."

Note:—The Author believes her to have been the Mother-in-law and not the Mother of Anneke Jans Bogardus. The Mother of her first husband.

October 2, 1674, Wolfort Webber, Brother of Anneke Jans Bogardus, was named Magistrate of the Court of Harlem.

From the calendar of Historical Manuscripts (Dutch) Vol. 1. Under date of August 12, 1638, we note:

From Various Books

Wolfert Webber, Sr.—

"A Native of Amsterdam, Holland, his son Wolfert, Jr., came to New Amsterdam during the year 1633, with the Dutch Governor Van Twiller. He was an own half brother of Anneke Jans. The original Anneke Jans Grant was given to Wilfert Webber, Jr."

"Wedding of Anneke Jans Bogardus was attended by Governor Kieft and De Vries, the most notable men of their day, in this new World."

"In a letter of Mr. E. B. Humphrey, from Amsterdam, Holland, dated April 22, 1878 to Mr. A. Button, East Saginaw, Mich., he stated that he had found the will of Wolfert Webber, Sr., also the advertisement and sale and distribution of his estate, and final funding of the money at interest rate of 2½ per cent, in the Orphans Chamber in 1645."

"Again in a letter dated June 10, 1878, he described the original grant to the Junior Wolfert Webber in New Amsterdam, known as the Wolfert Meadows, situated as near Chatham Square, present city of New York, as having been under a 99 year lease.

One further states that I also found a record kept in London, England, a reference to this Holland Estate." "(See Other Copyings.)"

"About 1850, the Government of Holland passed a statute of Escheats, by virtue of which untold millions of unclaimed estates escheated to the Government; and it is to be presumed that there were no exception."

Re:—The Early Van Hornes

From: Zengers New York Weekly Journal:
Date, July 7, 1737.

(Died) Capt. Garrett Van Horne, 66 years, served in General Assembly for 22 years, was the only one of the old members chosen for the city in the last election.

From the New York Military Records at Albany we note:—

That John Van Horne was a private in the line. 2nd Regiment under Col. Van Courtlandt also in the line 4th. Regiment under Col. Lewis DuBoys and another John Van Horne was a private in the Levies under Col. John Harper.

That, Thomas Van Horn was a Lieutenant and Ensign and Abraham Van Horn was Quartermaster of the Third Regiment of Tryon County Militia under Col. Frederick Fisher in the Revolutionary War and that John Van Horne, Henry Van Horne and Cornelius Van Horne were all members of the same division.

That, Daniel Van Horne was a private in the 32nd Regiment from Orange County, Militia under Col. Wm. Allison.

David Van Horne was a private in the Army (1738) under Captain Richards Company.

John Van Horne and George Van Horne served in Captain Boeleries Company (1738).

A full list of names of soldiers who served under Capt. Cornelius Van Horne's Company of 101 men, shows such notable men of their days, as David Provoost, Lieutenant, Ensign, Henry Rutgers. Sargeants, Arie King, John Kip, Henry Benson.

Early New Amsterdam Records show that on Oct. 4, 1647, Jan Cornalissen Van Horne gave Power of Attorney papers to Jan Jansen, cheesemonger, to receive money due him from his guardian in Holland.

On March 20, 1759, David Van Horne, as an Elder and others petitioned for a confirmation of a certain grant of land on the N. E.'ly. side of Wall St.

On Jan. 24, 1721 Abraham Van Horne, merchant was granted letters of administration in estate of Andrew Panton.

May 8, 1729, A Mandamus was served upon Abraham Van Horne, merchant, to be a member of the Council of the Colony of N. Y.

On April 5, 1727, Abraham Van Horne, Wm. Provost and Mary Burnet, (daughter of Abraham Van Horne), of New York City and Philip Livingston of the City of Albany were granted a license to buy 8,000 acres of land from the Indians on Mohawk River.

Abraham Van Horne, death recorded March 22, 1743, showing him to be a member of Council at the time of his death.

On Nov. 15th, 1720, an order was issued, directing the Attorney General to inspect and report on the act to enable Garret Van Horne and Cornelius Van Horne to sell and dispose of a certain house and grounds in New York City.

October 29, 1724, Garrett Van Horne is shown to be an Army Captain.

August 21, 1756, a petition filed shows Garrett Van Horne to be a half owner of a sailing vessel "Charming Nancy" sailing then for Maderia. And on December 6th, of the same year he is shown to have been a part owner of ship "ANNE."

June 21, 1757, he is shown to have been the sole owner of the ship "Tiger," mounted with eight guns.

November 24, 1758, he is shown as owner of ship "Fame" mounted with ten guns.

Worthy of Notation

The Author as is well known, has always been a strong advocate of National Prohibition, and during our research for family information we discovered in the abstracts of the Council

Minutes and Court Docket Records of Early New Amsterdam, the following Court Edicts of Records:

"May 17, 1638 First Ordinance in America against Intemperance was signed and on June 10th a restraint order was issued by the Court."

"June 18, 1643 Court issued order prohibiting the sale of liquors to Indians."

The above edicts do not agree with the propaganda that national prohibition was forced upon us during the World War.

One of the most popular of all the young men of his day, was Major Harry Lee, better known as "Light Horse Harry." He was in command of the cavalry at the time of the encampment of Washington's army at Middlebrook, N. J. He was then only twenty-two years of age, but had already won renown on the battle-field.

He was afterwards made Governor of Virginia and a member of Congress from that state. He was the father of General Robert E. Lee, who surrendered the Confederate Army to General Grant at Appomattox Court House on April 9th, 1865.

After the death of his beloved Washington, Lee was appointed by Congress to deliver the oration at the services of that great man. In this oration he uttered that famous phrase, "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen." Harry Lee with several brother officers had their quarters at the home of Philip Van Horne. This house is still standing at Gateville, N. J.

Col. Stephen Moylan, the daring Irish soldier commanding the first Pennsylvania Dragoons, was also at Van Horne's house and succeeded in winning his handsome daughter Mary, known far and wide as the "Belle of Middlebrook," as his wife.

William Van Horne followed his friend Harry Lee into Virginia where he settled. Possibly no other Jersey home has such a cluster of Revolutionary war reminiscences clustering about the door steps during those dark days of the revolution as did the homes of Philip and John Van Horne.

It was at the home of Philip Van Horne that Governor Livingston spent much time.

Chapter VI

THE ORIGIN

The origin of the name of this remarkable family appears to be one of a million guesses.

Some writer and a bit of tradition would have us believe that prior to the arrival of the founders of this family their names were not Van Horne, but that because of their coming from Horne, Holland, they assumed the customary prefix Van.

To this assumption or tradition the writer can not subscribe, as we are certain that the family name Van Horne has been an established family name in Europe for more than Seven Hundred Years, for we note that one of Rembrant's famous paintings was that of Count John Van Horn impersonating his father in the ancestral castle.

The family is of Flemish origin and doubtless assumed the family name about the eleventh century.

The family was one closely connected with the Royalty of Europe and produced many outstanding men of prominence.

It might be well to note, however, that in early Dutch writing the prefix Van was frequently dropped, while early German writers used the prefix Van and French writers the prefix De, whereas the early English during the same period always used the prefix Van as is always written in America.

The early writer in writing of the same man also spelled the name "Horn," "Horne" and "Hoorne" as of Count Philip Van Horne who was a Flemish Soldier and Statesman, born 1518, a son of Joseph De Montmorency-Neville and of Anne of Egmont and stepson or adopted son of Count John Van Horn who constituted him and his brother his heirs on condition of their assuming his name. Philip gradually rose to be governor of Gueldres and Zutphen, Admiral of a fleet and Councillor of State. He fought at St. Quintin in 1557 and at Gravelines in 1558 and in 1559 his brother John went to Spain. On his return from Spain he joined the Prince of Orange and Egmont in resistance to his brother Philip and in the Crown Encyclopedia we note that he was arrested in September 1567 on a charge of high treason and he and Egmont were beheaded in June 1568.

A splendid portrait painting of Count John Van Horn, Jr., is to be found in the Royal Gallery of Amsterdam.

While it can not be authentically stated by reason of the fact that it seems impossible to definitely establish the parentage of the founders of the family in America, yet every indication points directly to Count John Van Horne, Jr., who was beheaded as above stated or to his brother, Philip as being the probable grandparents of Jan Conallissen Van Horn and Christian Barentsen Van Horn.

We quote a few extracts from Motley's History, "The Rise of The Dutch Republic:"

"Count Horn was arrested upon the same occasion by Captain Salinas, as he was proceding through the courtyard of the house, after the breaking up of the council. He was confined in another chamber of the mansion, and met with a precisely similar treatment to that experienced by Egmont. Upon the 23rd. of September both were removed under a strong guard to the castle of Ghent.

"No sooner were these gentlemen in custody than the secretary Albornoz was dispatched to the house of Count Horn, and to that of Bakkrezeel, where all papers were immediately seized, inventoried, and placed in the hands of the Duke. Thus if, amid the most secret communications of Egmont and Horn or their correspondents, a single treasonable thought should be lurking, it was to go hard, but it might be twisted into a cord strong enough to strangle them all.

"The declaration against Count Horn, upon which, supported by invisible witnesses, he was condemned, was in the nature of a narrative. It consisted in the rehearsal of circumstances, some true and some fictitious, with five inferences. These five inferences amounted to five crimes—high treason, rebellion, conspiracy, misprision of treason, and breach of trust. The proof of these crimes was evolved in a dim and misty manner out of a purposely confused recital. No events, however, were recapitulated which have not been described in the course of this history. Setting out with a general statement that the Admiral, the Prince of Orange, Count Egmont, and other lords had organized a plot to expel his Majesty from the Netherlands, and to divide the provinces among themselves, the declaration afterwards proceeded to particulars.

"The wrath of the Duke was even greater than his surprise. Like Augustus, he called in vain on the dead commander for his legions, but prepared himself to inflict a more rapid and more terrible vengeance than the Roman's. Recognizing the gravity of his situation, he determined to take the field in person, and to annihilate his insolent chieftain who had dared not only to cope with, but to conquer his veteran regiments. But before he could turn his back upon Brussels many deeds were to be done. His measures now followed each other in breathless succession, fulminating and blasting at every stroke. On the 28th of May he issued an edict, banishing, on pain of death, the Prince of Orange, Louis Nassau, Hoogstraaten, Van den Berg and others, with confiscation of all their property. At the same time he razed the Culemberg Palace to the ground, and erected a pillar upon its ruins, commemorating the accursed conspiracy which had been engendered within its walls. On the first of June eighteen prisoners of distinction, including the two barons Batenburg, Maximilian, Kock, Blois de Treslong and others, were executed upon the horse-market, in Brussels. In the vigorous language of Hoogstraaten, this horrible tragedy was enacted directly before the windows of that "Cruel animal, Noircarmes," who, in company of his friend, Berlaymont, and the rest of the Blood Council, looked out upon the shocking spectacle. The heads of the victims were exposed upon stakes, to which also their bodies were fastened. Eleven of these victims were afterward deposited, uncoffined, in unconsecrated ground; the other seven were left unburied to moulder on the gibbet. On the second of June Villars, the leader in the Daalem rising, suffered on the scaffold with three others. On the 3rd, Counts Egmont and Horn were brought in a carriage from Ghent to Brussels, guarded by ten companies of infantry and one of cavalry. They were then lodged in the "Brood-huis" opposite the town hall, on the great square of Brussels. On the 4th, Alva having, as he solemnly declared before God and the world, examined thoroughly the mass of documents appertaining to those two great prosecutions which had only been closed three days before, pronounced sentence against the illustrious prisoners. These documents of iniquity, signed and sealed by the Duke, were sent to the Blood Council, where they were read by Secretary Praets. The signature of Philip was not wanting, for the sentences had been drawn upon blanks signed by the monarch, of which the viceroy had brought a whole trunkful from Spain. The sentence against Egmont declared very briefly that the Duke of Alva, having read all the papers and evidence in the case, had found the Count guilty of high treason. It was proved that Egmont had united with the confederates; that he had been a party to the accursed conspiracy of the Prince of Orange; that he had taken the rebel nobles under his protection, and that he had betrayed the Government and the Holy Catholic Church by his conduct in Flanders. Therefore the Duke condemned him to be executed by the sword on the following day, and decreed that his head should be placed on high in a public place, there to remain until the Duke should otherwise direct. The sentence against Count Horn was similar in language and purport."

During the night the necessary preparations for the morning tragedy had been made in the great square of Brussels. It was the intention of government to strike terror to the hearts of the people by the exhibition of an impressive and appalling spectacle. The absolute and irresponsible destiny which ruled them was to be made manifest by the immolation of these two men, so elevated by rank, powerful connection, and distinguished service."

"On the morning of the 5th of June three thousand Spanish troops were drawn up in battle array around a scaffold which had been erected in the centre of the square. Upon this scaffold, which was covered with black cloth, were placed two velvet cushions, two iron spikes, and a small table. Upon the table was a silver crucifix. The provost-marshal, Spelle, sat on horseback below, with his red wand in his hand, little dreaming that for him a darker doom was reserved than that of which he was now the minister. The executioner was concealed beneath the draperies of the scaffold."

"At eleven o'clock a company of Spanish soldiers, led by Julian Romero and Captain Salinas, arrived at Egmont's chamber. The Count was ready for them. They were about to bind his hands, but he warmly protested against the indignity, and opening the folds of his robe, showed them that he had himself shorn off his collars and made preparations for his death. His request was granted. Egmont, with the Bishop at his side, then walked with a steady step the short distance which separated him from the place of execution. Julian Romero and the guard followed him. On his way he read aloud the fifty-first Psalm: "Hear my cry, O God, and give ear unto my prayer!" He seemed to have selected these scriptural passages as a proof that, notwithstanding the machinations of his enemies, and the cruel punishment to which they had led him, loyalty to his sovereign was as deeply rooted and as religious a sentiment in his bosom as devotion to his God. "Thou wilt prolong the King's life; and his years as many generations. He shall abide before God for ever! O prepare mercy and truth which may preserve him." Such was the remarkable prayer of the condemned traitor on his way to the block."

"Having ascended the scaffold, he walked across it twice or thrice. He was dressed in a tabard or robe of red damask, over which was thrown a short black mantle embroidered in gold. He had a black silk hat, with black and white plumes, on his head, and held a handkerchief in his hand. As he strode to and fro, he expressed a bitter regret that he had not been permitted to die, sword in hand, fighting for his country and his king. Sanguine to the last, he passionately asked Romero whether the sentence was really irrevocable, whether a pardon was not even then to be granted. The marshal shrugged his shoulders, murmuring a negative reply. Upon this Egmont gnashed his teeth together, rather in rage than despair. Shortly afterward, commanding himself again he threw aside his robe and mantle, and took the badge of the Golden Fleece from his neck. Kneeling then, upon one of the cushions he said the Lord's Prayer aloud, and requested the Bishop, who knelt at his side, to repeat it thrice. After this, the prelate gave him the silver crucifix to kiss, and then pronounced his blessing upon him. This done, the Count rose again to his feet, laid aside his hat and handkerchief, knelt again upon the cushion, drew a little cap over his eyes and folding his hands together, cried with a loud voice, 'Lord, into Thy hands I commit my spirit.' The executioner then suddenly appeared and severed his head from his shoulders at a single blow."

"A moment of shuddering silence succeeded the stroke. The whole vast assembly seemed to have felt it in their own hearts. Tears fell from the eyes even of the Spanish soldiery, for they knew and honored Egmont as a valiant general. The French ambassador, Mondoucet, looking upon the scene from a secret place, whispered that he had now seen the head fall before which France had twice trembled. Tears were even seen upon the iron cheek of Alva, as, from a window in a house directly opposite the scaffold, he looked out upon the scene."

"A dark cloth was now quickly thrown over the body and the blood, and within a few minutes, Admiral Van Horn was seen advancing through the crowd. His bald head was uncovered, his hands were unbound. He calmly saluted each of his acquaintances as he chanced to recognize upon his path. Under a black cloak, which he threw off when he had ascended the scaffold, he wore a plain, dark doublet, and he did not, like Egmont, wear the insignia of the Fleece. Casting his eyes upon the corpse, which lay covered with the dark cloth, he asked if it were the body of Egmont. Being answered in the affirmative, he muttered a few words in Spanish, which were not distinctly audible. His attention was next caught by the sight of his own coat of arms reversed, and he expressed anger at this indignity to his escutcheon, protesting that he had not deserved the insult. He then spoke a few words to the crowd below, wishing them happiness, and begging them to pray for his soul. He did not kiss the crucifix, but he knelt upon the scaffold to pray, and was assisted in his devotions by the Bishop of Ypres. When they were concluded he rose again to his feet. Then drawing a Milan cap completely over his face, and uttering, in Latin, the same invocation which Egmont had used, he submitted his neck to the stroke."

"Egmont had obtained, as a last favor, that his execution should precede that of his friend. Deeming himself in part to blame for Horn's reappearance in Brussels after the arrival of Alva, and for his death, which was the result, he wished to be spared the pang of seeing him dead. Gemma Frisius, the astrologer who had cast the horoscope of Count Horn at his birth, had come to him in the most solemn manner to warn him against visiting Brussels. The Count had answered stoutly that he placed his trust in God, and that, moreover, his friend Egmont was going thither also, who had engaged that no worse fate should befall the one of them than the other."

"The heads of both sufferers were now exposed for two hours upon the iron stakes. Their bodies, placed in coffins, remained during the same interval upon the scaffold. Meantime, notwithstanding the presence of the troops, the populace could not be restrained from tears and from execrations. Many crowded about the scaffold and dipped their handkerchiefs in the blood, to be preserved afterwards as memorials of the crime and as ensigns of revenge."

From this volumous work of Motley it shows conclusively that Horn or Van Horn as he is called in the Crown Encyclopedia, was an ardent friend of the Prince of Orange and this coupled with the fact that two generations removed the first founders of the family in America married into the Webber family alleged descendant of the Prince of Orange, would indicate a family connection.

TRADITIONAL ORIGIN OF ANCESTRY OF ANNEKE JANS BOGARDUS.

According to tradition, Count (William of Nassau, alias William, the Rich) of Dillenbourg, married the Countess of Stallberg. From this union there was born amongst other children a son William (alias, the Silent), who, at the age of eleven years, became the Prince of Orange, and later William X of Orange and William I of Holland and Stadtholder of the Dutch Republic; and he during his life contracted (4) legitimate, recognized marriages, as follows:

1. In 1551 he married Anne of Egmont, daughter of Count de Boren. She died in 1558, leaving issue. The present queen of Holland is a descendant of this marriage.

2. In 1561 he married Anne of Saxony, daughter of Maurice of Saxony. They were divorced in 1575, and by her he also had issue.

3. On June 12, 1575 (shortly after his divorce from his second wife), he married Charlotte de Bourbon, daughter of the Duc de Montpensier; she died in May, 1582 leaving issue.

In 1582-1583 he married Louisa de Cologny by whom he had issue.

In addition to these recognized and officially recorded marriages, he is said to have married naturally, candestinely, or morganatically to —— —— (whose maiden surname and baptismal name seems not to be known) and by this unnamed, natural or morganic wife, he is said to have had two (2) children who were given the surname of Webber, viz.:

1. Sarah Webber.

2. Jan (or Wolfert) Webber.

Wolfert Webber born 1582, he married in 1600, Catherine (Tryntje) Jonas and by her had 3 children, viz.:

Wolfert Webber, Marytie Webber, and Anneke Webber, Anneke Jans Bogardus.

Chapter VII

Genealogy

Jan Cornellessen Van Hoorn and his descendants

One of the first School Teachers in New Amsterdam, now New York City.

While the first authentic record of a Van Horn in America is recorded under date of June 26, 1634, which states that Jaques Van Horne and Albert K. Burgh, both of Amsterdam, Holland, were a committee of the Board of Trade on Resolutions in regard to formulating a plan to colonize the New Netherlands.

It appears to the writer that they must have come to New Netherland (New York) and that Van Horne soon thereafter returned to Holland as we can find no further mention of him in any of the records.

We firmly believe that Jan Cornelissen Van Hoorn and Christian Barentsen Van Hoorn, without a doubt brothers, were the real founders of the Van Hoorn, Van Horne, Van Horn family in America, and that practically every Van Horn and Van Horn descendant in the Country to day are direct descendants of one of these two brothers.

They came from Hoorn, a large, pleasant and rich city on the Zuyder Zee in Holland, about twenty miles from Amsterdam, and a seaport of importance, a city at that time of about 10,000 inhabitants. It was the ancient capital of N. Holland and is a very picturesque city with numerous quaint old buildings, the wall of which is very often elaborately adorned with tiles. Hoorn was the birthplace of Willem Schouten, who discovered the passage around the S. coast of America in 1616, and named "Cape Horn" after his native town.

The Van Hoorn family was one of the most illustrious in Europe, and by intermarriage became widely connected with the highest nobility; they were shrewd, keen and aggressive citizens and were among the first Holland families to permanently settle in the New World.

It is of record that under date of March 27, 1614, the States General of Holland issued an edict, that five vessels sail from Holland, one from Hoorn, named the "Fortune."

They made a few discoveries and gave up the work, but took it up again in 1620, whereas the first Van Hoorn families, came from Hoorn and settled in New Amsterdam (New York) 1639-1640 on nineteen to twenty years later.

Jan Cornelissen Van Hoorn

Jan Cornellissen Van Hoorn one of the founders of the Van Hoorn family in America. The time of his arrival is not known exactly, but he was in New Amsterdam (New York) as early as 1640. He was a man of means and of superior education, ranking high in the estimation of his church and with his fellow settlers. We find him owning several parcels of real estate and his signature; Oct. 4, 1647, Jan Cornellissen Van Hoorn is attached to a Power of Attorney, on file among the old Dutch records New York, giving authority to Jan Jansen, cheesemonger of New Amsterdam, authorizing said Jansen to receive and receipt for the income due said Jan Cornellissen Van Hoorn at Amsterdam, Holland. His name signed by him in 1654, is written and spelled as above and still in a good state of preservation.

Jan Cornellissen Van Hoorn prospered, his children prospered and were honored by their fellow citizens, prosperity and honor came to many of their long line of descendants, in some cases however it reached its zenith about the days of the Revolution, while to others of his descendants, there appears to have been an unbroken line of successes, accomplishments and prosperity down even to the present generation.

The author of this history is a direct descendant of Jan Cornellissen Van Hoorn.

In the Old Colonial records of New Amsterdam we find the following mention of him:

On the 23rd of June, 1645, he was granted two lots of land and on the same day he sold a house and lot south of Marketfield Street, 30 feet wide by 4½ rods long, being part of the premises patented to said Jan Cornellissen Van Hoorn.

Jan Cornellissen sells and gives deed of a lot on the Island of Manhattan, with a bill of Survey, to Albert Pietersen, Trumpeter, Feb. 22, 1649.

On March 6th, 1653, Jan Cornellissen Van Hoorn sold a lot on east side of Fort Amsterdam one and one half rods and four and one half inches, by nine rods and nine feet in length near Marketfield Street. The fort stood on the Hudson River fronting the Battery, hence this lot to the east of it.

April 20, 1661, Jan Cornellissen Van Hoorn bought of Abraham Pietersen, at New Amsterdam, a water mill on fresh water.

In a remonstrance of the People of the New Netherlands to the Director General and Council, now in the Royal Archives at the Hague, dated September 5, 1664, in which we find the name of Jan Cornelis Van Hoorn.

He was one of the remonstrants against defending the city when attacked by the English in 1664, and signs the petition to the Director General and Council, asking that the City may be surrendered to the English September 5, 1664.

In October of that year, he took the oath of allegiance to the to the King of England. He became a member of the First Dutch Church of New York City, October 6th, 1656.

On April fourteenth, 1657, Jan Cornellissen Van Hoorn was entered upon the rolls of the inhabitants on New Amsterdam as a small burgher; he must pay 25 guilders and has been a resident three years and six weeks before the date of the city charter.

Jan Cornellissen Van Horn was the third teacher of the Public School of the Dutch Church, N. Y., after its organization, beginning his duties some time in 1648, and continuing up to November 1650, about which time he resigned.

His occupation as teacher was in a sense an ecclesiastical position recognized by church and state.

He married Hillegonda Joris, it appears that he died before June 16th, 1669, as on this day his widow married Evert Petersen, the widower of Grietje Arents.

The following Court Records are of interest:

Tuesday, Nov. 4, 1659. In the City Hall Hendrick Willemsen, baker, pltf. vs. Jan Cornelisen Van Hoorn, deft. Pltf. demands of Deft. a Muff brought to him by his wife, to have it made smaller, which he spoiled; requests payment or that the muff be returned. Deft. says, his wife left the muff to be made smaller and narrower, that he did not cut it off, to wit, in the length, but took it in. Plf. replies saying, that his wife said to him—Jan Cornelissen, we wish you to make the muff smaller nor larger, but leave it as it is. Deft. denies it. The Court refers the matter in question to Jacob Strycker and Issacq Kip to examine, whether the muff be spoiled, if not spoiled to estimate it: to reconcile parties if possible; otherwise to render a report to the court.

No. 1. Family of Jan Cornellissen Van Hoorn and Hillegonda Joris, his wife,

No. 2. Cornelius Jansen, b. Aug. 3, 1642, m. Anna Maria Jans, Oct. 5, 1659, d. 1692.

Note: Anna Maria Jans was a half sister to Wolfert Webber and the famous Anneke Jan Bogardus and had the same interests in various grants in America and legacies in Holland. Their marriage and family records are found among the Old Dutch Church records of N. Y. C.

He made his will Oct. 11, 1689 and gives his oldest son John, fifty shillings; the remainder of his estate he left to his wife, that she might properly bring up and educate his under-age children.

On September 15, 1659, Cornelius Jansen Van Hoorn bought from his father Jan Cornellissen Van Hoorn, a lot north of the wall, bounded west by house and lot of Adolf Pietersen; north, by house and lot of the grantor, east by the house and lot of Sybrant Jansen; south, by the wall aforesaid. Broad, on the wall or south side 25 running feet; long; on west side 48 feet; on the north, 22-½ feet; on the east, 46 feet.

They lived on "The Waal" and on April 19, 1665, a general levy was made on all Burghers and other inhabitants of New Amsterdam to pay the expenses of 100 soldiers quartered in the town. His assessment was 1 fl. per week for six weeks. They afterwards lived on the northerly side of Pearl St. between Old Slip and Broad St., then a part of the street called "Waterside" in 1674, and he was estimated at that time to be worth $5000., and was taxed on a valuation of 500 florins. He was by occupation a furrier and hat dealer. His wife Anna Maria Jans, was a member of the Old Dutch Church in New York City in 1686.

We note the following mention made of Cornelius Jansen Van Hoorn in the old Court Minutes of New Amsterdam:—On Friday, Nov. 22, 1658, in the City Hall, he takes the Burgher Oath.

Tuesday, March 16, 1660, in the City Hall, Cornelius Jansen Van Horn, plf. Vs. Arien Huyberzen, deft. Plf. demands for debt. (175) one hundred and seventy five guilders, balance of purchase of lands. Deft. says, the plf. was content with Pieter Jansen Witt and now addresses him; he says he has offered him payment in peace a. four guilders the skepel, for which he can sell them. The Court ordered the defendant to pay to the plf. the hundred and seventy five guilders.

Tuesday, Oct. 31, 1662. Cornelius Jansen Van Hoorn plf. Vs. Jan Gerrisen Vries, deft. Deft. in default.

Tuesday, Nov. 7, 1662. In City Hall. Cornelius Jansen plf. vs. Jan Gerrizen De Vries, deft. Plf. demands from deft. twenty guilders as balance for firewood sold him and his brother, which deft. promised to pay. Deft. says, the Plf. was satisfied by his brother. Plf. denies it. The Court order plf. to prove, that the deft. has promsied to pay for his brother. This case was disposed of on the next Court day, Tuesday, Nov. 14, 1662. The deft. being ordered to pay the plf. the twenty guilders with costs.

August 31, 1663, Cornelius Jansen Van Hoorn appeared in Court with others in regard to wall of City Hall.

Tuesday, Nov. 13, 1663. In City Hall. Aaght Jans, plf. vs. Cornelius Jansen Van Hoorn, deft. Plf. says, her boy shot a bear, which he tried to put in his boat and that the deft. came by there, who said that he chased the bear and that the half belonged to him; forcing him to toss-up for who should have the skin, which her boy lost. Maintaining that the deft. has no right to the skin, but her boy, because he had shot it, Deft. says he chased the bear and that he was on one end of the Island and the boy shot the bear on the other end; admits he told the boy to toss-up for the skin and that he had eaten half of the meat. Burgomasters and Schepens having heard parties, decree that the bear belongs to the boy as he shot it; but since half the meat has been consumed by the deft. and the plf. is content with the skin, that the deft. shall deliver up to her the skin of the aforesaid bear.

The following realty transfers, made by his widow were noted. On August 22, 1696, Anna Maria Van Hoorn, widow of Cornelius Jansen Van Hoorn deceased, sells land which he bought of the Mayor and Aldermen of New York, together with lands bought by her personally, on Apr. 21, 1692, to her son Garret, and again on the same date sold other lands to her oldest son John.

Following are the remaining issue of Jan Cornellissen Van Hoorn and Hillegonda Joris, his wife (Family No. 1):

No. 3. Vroutje, b. Dec. 12, 1643, d. without issue.

Note: As to Joris or Joris Jansen Van Hoorn we find he was married in the Old Dutch Church, New York and appears to have been a man of keen ability and especially so as a builder.

He was a carpenter and architect as he designed and built many of the residences and storehouses in early New Amsterdam.

We note that on February 28, 1670/1 he buys at New Amsterdam, a house and lot of Isaac F. De Forest, Guardian of the children of Mary Peeck, also various other realty transactions which show that he bought and sold numerous houses and lots. He was very active in the affairs of the town and appears to have been an honored and useful citizen.

The following Court record is of interest: "Jan Buytenhuys and Andries Andriessen, plf. Vs. Joris Jansen Van Hoorn, deft. Plf. says, they hired to deft. a canoe, which he was also bound to repair at his cost, and that the deft. allowed the canoe to go adrift at his wharf, so that they were obliged to disburse the sum of 36 fl., in divers materials; they request, that deft. may be ordered to restore the same to them. Deft. says, he was not obliged to furnish the materials thereto, but to pay carpenter's wages. The Court having seen the evidence dismiss plfs. demand and condemn them in the costs. No. 11. Family of Johannes or John Van Horne and Cathrine Meyers, his wife,

Note: He was possibly the wealthiest of any of the early Van Horn's, being a merchant in N. Y. C. and owning hundreds of acres of land in New Jersey, as his will recorded elsewhere in this history will indicate.

Records show that on March 8, 1732, John Van Horn of the City of New York and Cathrine his wife, with others sell to Abraham Van Campen of Hunterdon County, West Jersey, 1666 acres of land in Hunterdon County, known by the Indian name Pahaquaalin. This deed also recites who owned it before 1698. On May 6, 1731, John Van Horne of the City of New York, Gentleman, sells to Richard Smith of Burlington, N. J. for 30 pounds, a tract of land which said Van Horne purchased of Hugh Huddy, May 2, 1716, and recorded in Liber B. B. Folio 259, which deed recites that John Van Horne purchased 6½ acres.

Note: The change made in the spelling of his name, from Van Hoorn to Van Horne.

Further records show that he acquired a tract of 6,800 acres of land in Montgomery Township, Somerset County, N. J. in 1707, and that in 1753 his son Abraham Van Horne, then a merchant in New York City, sold 246½ acres of this same land to Joost Duryea for 1059 pounds.

In the census taken in 1703, a copy of which the writer has in his office, his family is given as One Male, One Female, three children, three negroes, three negresses.

The following very interesting mentionings are made of John Van Horne and Cathrine his wife, in the old colonial records, which we copy in brief.

He served for several terms as a member of the New York General Assembly.

In the New York Historical Manuscripts we note that on June 1, 1725, he was a part owner of the Ship "Hopewell."

He was an Alderman, "East Ward", New York City, 1703-4-5-6. He was a member of the 12th Colonial Assembly from New York City, April 6, 1709 to November 12, 1709.

August 1, 1708, John Van Horne, William Peartree and Jacobus Cortland, petition for a new patent for a tract of land beginning at Hutchinses brook at the end of the half mile mentioned in Eastchester patent and so up the same to its head, and thence N. W. to Brunck's river, and so up said river till it bears with the head of Hutchinses River due southeast and so down said river to Eastchester patent, and along the bounds of the same to the head of Rattlesnake brook.

November 10, 1709—Petition of John Van Horne and others, praying that the dock from Burgess path, to Capt. Theobald's slip, fronting their lots, may be erected, and made a public landing place. On May 23, 1710 they again present same petition.

November 10, 1721, John Van Horne petitions for a grant of 2,000 acres of the land now lying vacant and unappropriated in this province.

February 13, 1722, John Van Horn, Ebenezer Wilson and Anthony Rutgers file a caveat against recording any new survey of the patent of lands owned by themselves and others, known as Wawauynda and Minisencks. (This was near Stoney Point, probably as the Evans Patent was there.)

John Van Horn receives payment from Estate Peter Watson, deceased, October 14, 1715, at Middletown, N. Y.

June 23, 1725, John Van Horne and Barent Rynders owned the ship "Hopewell" and are paid for quarantine guard put on her. He is also given pay for services.

John Van Horne imports 6 Bbls. Rum (150 gals.) March 11, 1701.

In December 1733 John Van Horne sues Arnout Schermerhorn on bond and in April 1734 case comes up in James Van Horne to whom the said bond to John then belonged. N. Y. Gazette April 1734.

Catharine Meyer, wife of Johannes Van Horne was baptized Sept. 8, 1672. She was the daughter of Jan Dirckszen Meyer and his wife Tryntje Andriesse Grevenvaet, who lived in New Amsterdam prior to 1652. They are in list as early members of Dutch Church, many of whom settled here prior to 1649. He was a painter and was admitted as a small burgher, April 14, 1657. His wealth in 1674 was estimated at 2,000 pounds. He then lived on Bridge Street, New Amsterdam (New York), and in 1686 on Stone Street between Whitehall and Broad Streets.

John Van Horne of New York, a merchant, bought land at Van Keulers Hook March 27, 1711 and sold it to Derick Benson in 1714.

No. 35. Family of Cornelius Van Horn and Elizabeth French, his wife,

Note: Cornelius Van Horne dwelt about 22 miles N. W. of Perth Amboy, N. J. and was a member of the N. J. Council.

In the "American Weekly Mercury," Sept. 19, 1724, Cornelius Van Horne advertised a runaway Negro, offers three pounds reward and states that he lived at the time 22 miles N. W. from Amboy, N. J.

Cornelius Van Horn signed a petition for Governor of New Jersey to separate from New York, March 18, 1735.

Cornelius Van Horne as a member of the council of New Jersey, signed a petition to the King, March 18, 1735.

October 21, 1736, he signed a letter to Hon. John Hamilton, President of His Majesty's Council, and Commander-in-chief of the Province of New Jersey, referring therein to the claims of Col. Lewis Morris. He was appointed Mayor of New York by President Van Dam in 1736, but the validity of his appointment was questioned and he did not serve officially. Lewis Morris writing from Perth Amboy, N. J. Oct. 25, 1736, to the Duke of New Castle in support of his claims to the Presidency of the Council named Cornelius as being in opposition.

In the Pennsylvania Gazette of Oct. 20, 1738, published at Philadelphia, Cornelius Van Horne advertises an English servant man, named James Yates, employed to teach school, and one, Elizabeth Perry, having both run away; five pounds reward is offered for both or fifty shillings each.

On August 1, 1740, the Lords of Trade appointed Abraham Van Horne of the Province of New York and Cornelius of the Province of New Jersey on a commission to settle the Boundaries between the Provinces of the Massachusetts Bay and the Colony of Rhode Island eastward.

Cornelius Van Horne was authorized by the Governor of New Jersey to administer oaths, etc. on July 28, 1748.

On Feb. 28, 1749, he is recorded as owning a large plantation on the Raritan River in Somerset County, N. J.

On Apr. 16, 1750, he advertises a Negro man, stating that owner may have him by paying costs of Advertising.

On Jan. 17, 1753, George Clinton in Writing to Hon. Robert Hunter speaks of Major Cornelius Van Horne as being very ill.

On Nov. 6, 1755, Gov. Belcher ordered all the Militia Regiments in the Provinces of New Jersey to be held in readiness to repel the French and Indians reported to be approaching the Frontier towns. One of these regiments was under the command of Col. Cornelius Van Horne and on Dec. 3, 1755 Gov. Belcher ordered Col. Van Horne of Somerset County to furnish forty men for the immediate defense of the frontiers in the Counties of Morris and Sussex.

On June 30, 1756, Governor Belcher of New Jersey issues orders to Col. Cornelius Van Horne, commanding the Regiment of the Militia of Somerset County, to supress rioting etc., including assaults upon friendly indians.

No. 44. Family of James Van Horne and Margarete Baynard, his wife,

Note: His will is dated Apr. 10, 1745. His wife was a daughter of Samuel Baynard. In will he instructs that children be educated in the best Pennsylvania schools although he himself was a life long resident of New York.

In 1744, James Van Horn, son of John, began advertising 1,343 acres of it for sale, stating it would make "four compact farms" ("N. J. Archives", Vol. XII, P. 208). He again advertised it at various dates between 1751 and 1758. During at least his later years James lived at "Dover", near Cheesquakes in Middlesex County, probably on other land willed to him. Abraham, who was still of New York City in 1752 advertised "about 1,000 acres" of the Rock Hill Land. "N. J. Archives" XIX, P. 135) James died in 1761 when only thirty-nine years of age, devising all of his estate to his sons, John and James. This son, James, was, doubtless, a promising student, whom the will enjoined "To study physic or law and complete his studies in Scotland." John was evidently intended to be the farmer, and we know that he actually settled upon the Rocky Hill property after his marriage in 1766, to the daughter of Colonel Nathaniel Heard, of Woodbridge.

The last named John Van Horn died without issue Feb. 4, 1820, and was buried in the old Princeton Cemetery. His house at Rocky Hill was the scene of the humerous "pig anecdote" in which General Washington figured, as recorded by Washington's portrait painter, Dunlot and printed in Barber's "History Collections of New Jersey." (p. 462).

No. 121. Family of Philip Van Horne and Elizabeth Ricketts, his wife,

Note: It might be well to note that as a young man, he started in the mercantile business in New York City and remained in business until about 1755 when he moved to Somerset County, N. J.

In Jan. 18, 1741, the following advertisement appeared in the columns of the New York Journal, "Just Imported and to be sold very reasonable for ready money or on short credit by Philip Van Horne at his store in Duke Street, back of Colonel Robinsons, a variety of English goods.

By the New York Gazette Mercury of Jan. 1, 1770, we note:

Philip Van Horne is a judge of the Court of Common Pleas for Somerset County, N. J. and is also one of several gentlemen who established a grammar school at Middle Brook, N. J. near the seat of Philip Van Horne.

The New York Gazet of March 23, 1752, says "The house of Philip Van Horne, near the Long Bridge was struck by lightning and set on fire last Tuesday."

On March 12, 1759, he was confirmed by the Governor and Council of New Jersey as a Judge of Somerset County and on April 21, 1768, at a meeting of the Governor and Council at Perth Amboy he was appointed a judge and also at the same time was appointed a Justice of the Quorum. At the same time his brother John was also appointed to the same office.

General Cornwallis and General Grant took breakfast with him at his home on April 13, 1777, and at one time the Marquis de Chastellux, a Major General of the French Army, was a guest at his home.

April 18, 1778, Philip Van Horne of Somerset County, N. J., offers a reward of three pounds for the return of a horse stolen from him.

Dec. 19, 1778, the Earl of Stirling's Headquarters, were at Convivial Hill, a seat of Philip Van Horne, Esq., about seven miles from Brunswick, N. J.

While Major Henry Lee, grandfather of Gen. Robert E. Lee, was encamped at Camp Meadowbrook,

N. J., during Revolutionary days, he and several brother officers were quartered at Phils Hill, a large mansion on an elevation north of the main road, just west of Middlebrook Stream, of late, the property of John Herbert; it was then the hospitable dwelling of Philip Van Horne, the father of five well bred and very handsome daughters, who were the much admired toasts of both armies. Van Horne himself, so far as loyalty was concerned, seems to have been a suspicious character and at one time Washington contemplated his removal to New Brunswick; indeed he was arrested and put on his parole, but was permitted to remain at Middlebrook where he and his bright-eyed girls continued to welcome friend and foe alike, and it is said were often able to mitigate the ferocities of war.

They continued to live at Middlebrook, N. J., until the close of the Revolutionary war.

This Changing Life Below

Life in brightest phases seen
Is but gilded all—
O'er its fairest pages
Shadows darkly fall.

Hours but few of joy we taste,
Hope illumes the goal,
Bliss we dream, but tis not his,
Can satisfy the soul.

Youth, the heart's best season,
Is not free from care;
Though it seemeth gladsome,
Sorrow lurketh there.

And the beck'ning future,
Visions sweet portray;
Telling brighter morrow,
Heedless of to-day.

Unborn thoughts of greatness,
Slumbering hopes of fame,
Winning for their votary
True homage and a name.

These the restless longings
'Oft indulged by youth,
Stealing from young life the bloom
Of holy love and truth.

Manhood's sterner moments,
Bustling hours of strife,
Bear a deeper impress
On the record life.

Then ambition waking
Knows no idle chain
And it listeth never
Childhood's dream again.

But tis bearing onward
With the sordid mart,
Panting in the race begun
To act a glorious part.

How the heart grows worldly
How our fond hopes cling
To the pomp of earthly power
Though no peace it brings.

And our days grow weary,
Sadly sinks the sun,
While our cherished schemes decay
E'er the goal is won.

Far on boyhood's pathway
Says our feeble mind,
And a friendly echo
Breathes upon the wind,

Telling of the joyous past,
The friends we loved so well,
Above whose graves, long years ago
The tears of evening fell.

Hope wreaths no glorious future
To bid us long that sleep
From whose calm, sweet forgetfulness,
None ever wake to weep.

Fearful old age starteth
If a shadow fall—
Startled at the memories
Buried years recall,

Yet, though shadows darkly
Rest upon our brow,
If above are treasures,
Life is brightest now.

For we fast are hastening,
Though earth's path we tread
Glad its sorrows come not
To that city of the dead.

While in dreamless slumber
Soft a Saviour's hand
Guides through dark'ned valley
To that better land.

Chapter No. 8

CHRISTIAN BARENTSEN VAN HOORN
And
His Descendants

Christian Barentsen Van Hoorn, who, as was the family custom in Holland, signed his name Van Hoorn, was undoubtedly a brother of Jan Cornellessen Van Hoorn, both of whom came to New Amsterdam, now New York City, in America about 1640, A. D. He married Jannetje Jans.

He came from Hoorn, a city in the north of Holland. He seems to have been a man of undoubted good judgment, as he was frequently appointed referee.

He was appointed on March 10, 1633, by the Burgomasters and Schepens of New Amsterdam to view a house, in regard to the building of which there was some litigation.

On June 28, 1655, he appears as attorney for Albert Andressen.

On September 5, 1658, he sailed with the expedition from New Netherlands, the object of which was to dispossess the Swedes, who had settled on the South River (Delaware), the settlement was known as Fort Christina, now Wilmington, Delaware.

On October 15, 1655, he was a subscriber to the fund for repairing and strengthening the City Hall, 15 Guilders. He was appointed Fire Warden at Fort Amsterdam, January 18, 1656.

On April 17, 1657, he is made a small Burgher.

On August 1, 1657, he is given patent for lot of land "By the Land Gate" New Amsterdam (at Broadway and Wall Street).

On November 17, 1657, he is paid 1616 Guilders, 13 Stivers, and Mortgage of 1233 Guilders, 17 Stivers for house and lot at New Amsterdam, by Cornelise Janse Plavier, previously bought by Christian Barentsen February 17, 1654, and July 30, 1657.

On May 30, 1658, Hendrick Hendricks, a tailor, acknowledges to owe him 500 Guilders, balance of purchase money for house and lot at New Amsterdam, near the Land Gate, and mortgages said house to satisfy the debt.

At about this time he returned to Wilmington, Delaware, where he with others who had obtained a grant of land on the south side of None Such Creek, a tributary of the Christina, not far from the present Wilmington, Delaware; at the junction of the two streams is Sweet Nut Island, opposite Newport. It was on this grant of land he and his fellow grantees began the erection of a mill.

In the documents relating to the Colonial History of New York, this mill is referred to as a horse mill. Horse power was probably used when from low tides water power was not available.

It was while building this mill he died. It is not doubted but that he was buried in the old graveyard about a mile from the City of Wilmington, Delaware.

At the time of his death he still held the office of Fire Warden, as on the 23rd of December, 1658, his successor was appointed—it being noted in the City records that he had died at South River, (Delaware).

Jannetje Jans, widow and executrix of Christain Barentsen presented to the Court in New Amsterdam an inventory of "all the liabilities and assets as they were at the time of her husband's demise" requesting that Mr. Jacob Alrichs, Director of the City's Colony on the South River, where her husband died, be written to "in order that the chattels which are there may be sent from the South River to this place." The inventory was put into the hands of the Orphanmasters of the City, who were requested to examine and prove the same, and, as far as possible, to effect a settlement.

Minutes of the Orphanmasters of New Amsterdam.
Demise of Christian Barentsen Van Hoorn,

August 28, 1658, Orphanmaster Pieter Wolfersen Van Cowvenhoven produces a letter received through Court Messenger, Pieter Schabanck, which having been opened, was found to have been written and sent by the Hon. Alrichs from the South River and to report the death of Christian Barentsen Van Hoorn on the 26th of July, 1658, with a statement by inventory of his estate and the request to assist his widow.

* * * *

Alrichs writes to Peter Stuyvesant September 5, 1658, "In regard to the widow of Christain Barents, as she desired beyond measure to go there and requested it within three days after her husband's burial, by word of mouth and by writing also that the property which he left behind, might be sold immediately, all of which has been agreed to and permitted at her repeated instances or demands and arranged for the best of the heirs, so that they have been benefited more than usual, by some presents, or words of consolation, as your Honor will have seen from the transmitted letters and account and sale of the property; therefore, there is no cause given the aforesaid widow to complain, but I only advised or proposed to her, that it would be for her best to remain in possession; she should be assisted in completing the mill, with the income of which through the grist, she would be able to diminish the expenses and live decently and abundantly with her children, on the surplus, besides that she had yet three or four good cows, with sheep and hogs, which also could help her to maintain her family. She and her children should have remained on and inherited the father's estate, which was in good condition, here, wherein the widow and the children could have continued reputably and in (good) position to much advantage, but she would not listen to advice, that she was to be restricted in her inclinations and well-being, which I shall never think of, much less do. This God may grant and give, and I will also ask him to take your Honor and us with our families in his Almighty care and protection, remaining

Your Honor's ever obedient and faithful servant,

J. ALRICHS."

New Amstel,
the 5th September, A. D. 1658.
To the Noble, Honorable, Worshipful,
Wise, very Prudent Mr. Petier Stuyvesant
General of New Netherlands, Curacao, etc.,
Residing in Fort Amsterdam.

By Capt. Jacobsen.

FROM THE RECORDS OF NEW NETHERLAND

"December 18, 1858. Before the Board appeared Burgomaster Olaf Stevensen Cortlandt who is informed by the Orphanmaster, of the inventory of his property here, made by this widow, wherein differences appearing with which they do not know what to do, the widow of said Christian Barentsen Van Hoorn, called Jannetje Jans, is called and asked whether the payment for the house near the Land Gate had been received; she answers, yes, by Hendrick Van Dyck who had Power of Attorney from her husband; asked about the payment for the house where Hendrick Henricksen, the tailor, lives, she says not to have received it, but it is still due and charged.

The children of Christian Barentsen Van Hoorn and Jannetje Jans, his wife, were:

2. Barnet, b. Aug. 30, 1651, married Gertje Dircks Claussen, Feb. 14, 1679.

3. Cornelius, bap. August 3, 1653, married Margaret Vander Burgh, Mar. 4, 1675.

4. Johannis, bap. March 18, 1657, married Lenah Boone.

Jannetje Jans, widow of Christian Barentsen Van Hoorn, married December 12, 1658, as her (2) husband, Laurens Andriessen Van Boskerk, who was born in Holstein, Denmark. He was a member of the Bergen, N. J. Court in 1667; President of the same in 1682; and a member of the Governor's Council for a number of years. Jannetje took as her fortune to her (2) husband "1,400 florins heavy money, 10 Wampun beads for one stiver."

Van Boskerk and his wife made a joint Will dated August 29, 1679; proved March 19, 1692-3 by the provisions of which the survivor was to enjoy the whole estate for life. After his and her decease one half of the property was devised to the children of Jannetje by her first husband, Christian Barentsen Van Hoorn, and the family by the second marriage, received the remainder.

Jannetje Jans. d. July 13, 1694, having survived her (2) husband, Laurens Andriessen Van Boskerk, several months.

We shall consider only the children and descendants of Jannetje Jans by her first husband, Christian Barentsen Van Hoorn.

2. Barent Christian, b. August 30, 1651. m. Geertje Dircks Claussen. He lived at Bergen, N. J. in which town he was a farmer and owner of large tracts of land. It was here they raised their family. On Jan. 14, 1717 he signed a petition to Gov. Hunter. All their children except Jacob and Dirck moved to Bucks County, Pa. Dirck moved to Hackensack, N. J. and Jacob remained on the homestead at Pemmerpoeck.

Geertje Claussen, wife of Barent Van Horn, was born February 5, 1662, and was a daughter of Dirck Claussen and his wife Myrtie Roelofs; he died in 1686, and was a son of Claes Jacobsen and Pietterlie Heertgens and was born at Leeuwarden, in Friesland; emigrating to New Amsterdam with his wife and widowed mother in 1653. He was a potter. In 1657, when he became a small burgher, he bought a house and lot in New Amsterdam, and set up a pottery known afterwards as "Pot Baker Corner" situated near the outlet of the Fresh Water into the East River.

In 1674 he was taxed on a valuation of 700 Florins.

On March 26, 1677, Barent Christian Van Hoorn of Monkaque, planter, was granted by Gov. Philip Carteret fifty acres of land and meadow at Pemmerpoeck, N. J., in one deed, and eighty-five acres of meadow or marsh land on the Bay called Kill von Kull (Newark Bay) in Bergen County, N. J.

On September 29, 1697, the proprietors of East Jersey granted him One Hundred and Sixty acres on the "Hackingsack" River, subject to a yearly quit rent of one half penny for each acre. (This land joined that of Thomas Lawrensen Van Boskerk). Barent Christian and his half brother Peter Van Boskerk purchased May 15, 1703, of Robert Heator for £825, one thousand acres on Neshaminy Creek, Bucks, Co., Pa., the division of which was made by their deed of partition, dated September 18, 1707. Two days later Barent conveyed all his share in the above to his sons, Peter who was deeded 257 acres, and Christian 294 acres.

On the 29th of September, 1707, Barent Christian Van Horn of Bergen County, N. J. bought for £290 Five Hundred and Fifty acres in Bucks Co., Pa., from Thomas Groom, Two Hundred and Seventy-four acres of which were conveyed to his son Barent Barentsen Van Hoorn on June 17, 1714. He deeds to his son Abraham Van Hoorn, May 6, 1722, Two Hundred and Ninety acres, and on June 7, 1722, to his son Isaac Van Horn Two Hundred and Seventy-six acres; altogether these conveyances amount to 1,381 acres.

Although owning much land in Bucks Co., Pa., Barent Christian Van Horn continued to live in Bergen County, New Jersey.

The children of Barent Christian Van Hoorn and Geertje Dirks Claussen, were,

He conducted his saw mill until Apr. 1828, when by a deed dated Apr. 7, 1828 he sold it to James Sheaffer. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and according to the U. S. Pension Office served three different enlistments and was honorably discharged each time.

Note: It will be of interest to note that No. 114-115 were among the early settlers of Monroe County, Pa., then a part of Northampton County and that when they first settled in that county within five miles from the present home of the author of this history, they were frequently molested by the Indians who were very numerous in that section at that time. Because of their annoyance, Samuel moved in 1794, from there to what is now Hunlock Creek, Luzerne County, Pa., and later moved to Kentucky, taking with him his two younger sons, Amos and Benjamin, the older ones having married and had a home of their own.

He remained in Kentucky until in his 86th year, when he returned to Luzerne County, Pa., where he died in his 99th year. His sons, Amos and Benjamin remained in the West. Benjamin soon after his marriage went North into Michigan where he reared his family. Benjamin (115) served four separate enlistments in the Revolutionary before coming to Monroe County Section.

GENEALOGY

WEBBER—GILDNER FAMILY

While it has been a fixture in the minds of various members of that family, that they are direct descendants of the Van Horne family, the Historian has failed to find connection. However, we believe there to be a direct connection with the Wolfert Webber Family of which the Van Horne Family is also a part.

We publish this chapter for the preservation of valuable records in our hands.

We find that John Frantz, otherwise written John Francis, Giltner, elsewhere written Gildner arrived in this country on the ship "Glascow," Sept. 9, 1732, that he later took oath in Philadelphia and according to records on file at Harrisburg, we find that he was granted a warrant or patent for one hundred acres in Bucks County, in 1743; also for one hundred acres in 1744 and for thirty acres in 1749 in Bucks County, Penna. and of which later became a part of Northampton County, Penna.

We find that he married Cathrine Webber who was born about 1720 and both are buried in the old Heidelberg Cemetery in Bucks County, Penna. Their family follows:

Rev. Jacob F. Barrall No. 106

(Mother)

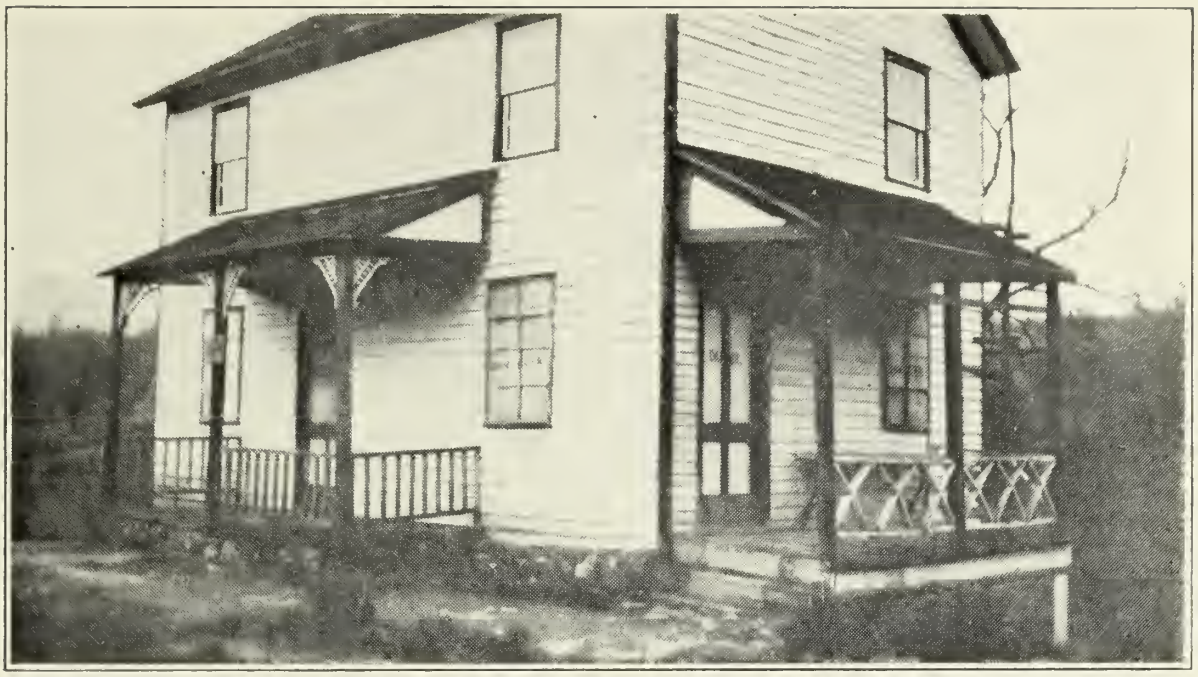
Thou are not here, my earliest friend,
Thine aid and influence to lend;
And when the storm clouds hover o'er
My darksome path, thy voice no more
Can awaken hope or banish fear—
Guide of my youth, thou art not here,

No more I see thy look of love,
Pure as the smiling stars above;
That look could nerve my heart to bear,
When on the verge of dark despair;
But now, whene'er my soul is sad,
Thou art not here to make it glad.

Spring cometh, and its skies are clear,
But thou, my mother, art not here.
Thou, who didst show the creeping vine
Beneath my window, where to twine,
Thou, who didst rear the blossoms gay,
Henceforth, forever, art away.

Thou art not here amidst the flowers,
I see thee not in twilight hours,
And yet, I sometimes think I feel
Thy spirit's presence o'er me steal,
Soft as the breath of evening air,
To calm my throbbing brow of care.



A Striking Contrast

THE OLD HOME

On April 14, 1884, in this humble little home located about three miles north of Stillwater, Middleville and Swartswood, in Sussex County, N. J., on a now almost entirely abandoned road, was born the author of this history, a life long total abstainer and ardent Prohibition worker, advocate and lecturer.

1929. Note on the windows and doors of this house, which has long since fallen into the hands of foreigners, placards, "DANGER" alleged workings of a modern bootlegger.
